"In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams." Many will feel the Cool Breeze of the Holy Spirit and experience the Living Waters of the Savior. But do not give what is holy to dogs or feed these pearls to swine. (April 19, 2021)

April 19, 2021

Two days ago, "I wanted to start on the 24/7 Cool Breeze of the Resurrection before moving on to the Waters of Eternal Life that some great souls have experienced."

Yesterday, as I was walking back from Pharmaprix after getting my medications, my glasses started getting fogged yet again while wearing the face mask.

Though I have tried various ways to minimize this slightly irritating problem that many of us have experienced during this current Covid-19 pandemic, I was never successful. The reason I was not: I had to breathe. My breath caused the condensation.

My breath caused the condensation?!!! Eureka! YES! I was ready to complete the 24/7 Cool Breeze and the Waters of Life Eternal based on the experience of getting my glasses condensed by breath.

A few minutes ago I started googling for information about the woman whom Jesus met at the well in the afternoon, but had to stop immediately. Even my mind cannot encompass the depth and vastness of "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away."

The Holy Spirit Comes at Pentecost

2 When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. 2 Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. 3 They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. 4 All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues[a] as the Spirit enabled them.

5 Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. 6 When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. 7 Utterly amazed, they asked: "Aren't all these who are speaking Galileans? 8 Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? 9 Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, [b] 10 Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome 11 (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!" 12 Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, "What does this mean?"

13 Some, however, made fun of them and said, "They have had too much wine."

Peter Addresses the Crowd

14 Then Peter stood up with the Eleven, raised his voice and addressed the crowd: "Fellow Jews and all of you who live in Jerusalem, let me explain this to you; listen carefully to what I say. 15 These people are not drunk, as you suppose. It's only nine in the morning! 16 No, this is what was spoken by the prophet Joel:

17 "In the last days, God says,
 I will pour out my Spirit on all people.
 Your sons and daughters will prophesy,
 your young men will see visions,
 your old men will dream dreams.
 18 Even on my servants, both men and women,
 I will pour out my Spirit in those days,
 and they will prophesy.
 19 I will show wonders in the heavens above
 and signs on the earth below,
 blood and fire and billows of smoke.
 20 The sun will be turned to darkness
 and the moon to blood
 before the coming of the great and glorious day of the Lord.
 21 And everyone who calls
 on the name of the Lord will be saved.'[c]

22 "Fellow Israelites, listen to this: Jesus of Nazareth was a man accredited by God to you by miracles, wonders and signs, which God did among you through him, as you yourselves know. 23 This man was handed over to you by God's deliberate plan and foreknowledge; and you, with the help of wicked men,[d] put him to death by nailing him to the cross. 24 But God raised him from the dead, freeing him from the agony of death, because it was impossible for death to keep its hold on him. 25 David said about him:

"I saw the Lord always before me.
 Because he is at my right hand,
 I will not be shaken.
 26 Therefore my heart is glad and my tongue rejoices;
 my body also will rest in hope,
 27 because you will not abandon me to the realm of the dead,
 you will not let your holy one see decay.
 28 You have made known to me the paths of life;
 you will fill me with joy in your presence.'[e]

29 "Fellow Israelites, I can tell you confidently that the patriarch David died and was buried, and his tomb is here to this day. 30 But he was a prophet and knew that God had promised him on oath that he would place one of his descendants on his throne. 31 Seeing what was to come, he spoke of the resurrection of the Messiah, that he was not abandoned to the realm of the dead, nor did his body see decay. 32 God has raised this Jesus to life, and we are all witnesses of it. 33 Exalted to the right hand of God, he has received from the Father the promised Holy Spirit and has poured out what you now see and hear. 34 For David did not ascend to heaven, and yet he said,

"The Lord said to my Lord:
 "Sit at my right hand
 35 until I make your enemies
 a footstool for your feet.'"[f]

36 "Therefore let all Israel be assured of this: God has made this Jesus, whom you crucified, both Lord and Messiah."

37 When the people heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the other apostles, "Brothers, what shall we do?"

38 Peter replied, "Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins. And you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. 39 The promise is for you and your children and for all who are far off—for all whom the Lord our God will call."

40 With many other words he warned them; and he pleaded with them, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." 41 Those who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand were added to their number that day.

The Fellowship of the Believers

42 They devoted themselves to the apostles' teaching and to fellowship, to the breaking of bread and to prayer. 43 Everyone was filled with awe at the many wonders and signs performed by the apostles. 44 All the believers were together and had everything in common. 45 They sold property and possessions to give to anyone who had need. 46 Every day they continued to meet together in the temple courts. They broke bread in their homes and ate together with glad and sincere hearts, 47 praising God and enjoying the favor of all the people. And the Lord added to their number daily those who were being saved. [emphasis ours]

For those who have ears that are now beginning to hear:

"He who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, 'From his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.'" But this He spoke of the Spirit, whom those who believed in Him were to receive; for the Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus was not yet glorified."

I will continue another day because we must first absolutely understand and apply the difference between Satan disguising himself as the (un)Holy Spirit of Pentecost 2000 years ago and the Holy Spirit of the Savior 2000 later.

They must know why, after 2000 years of 'crucifixion,' Jesus is ready to be taken down for the Resurrection along with the rest of humanity. THE MOTHER and HER Savior Son are pointing to eternal life in the Kingdom of the Universe.

HALF THE SKY must see the vastness that the vision of 2050 bestows on those who will perform the greatest miracle of all time—the salvation of lost souls.

Yes, I started in the early morning to write about the 24/7 Cool Breeze flowing from my hands and the Sahasraras of great, ancient souls getting wet but had to stop.

Yes, my mind cannot encompass the depth and vastness of "Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will never pass away."

Above all, my mind cannot encompass how it is still possible that 50 years after May 5, 1970 the ears of billions of Jews, Christians and Muslims still cannot hear the Good News (Al-Naba) of the Paraclete, the Holy Spirit of THE MOTHER!!! Who has that Power?

"Satan, also known as the Devil, is an entity in the Abrahamic religions that seduces humans into sin or falsehood. In Christianity and Islam, he is usually seen as either a fallen angel or a jinn, who used to possess great piety and beauty, but rebelled against God, who nevertheless allows him temporary power over the fallen world and a host of demons. In Judaism, Satan is typically regarded as a metaphor for the yetzer hara, or "evil inclination", or as an agent subservient to God."

The true test so resented by those I am accusing: My mind cannot encompass how it is still possible that 50 years after May 5, 1970 the ears of Sahaja Yogis remain deaf!

Hasan Sayad and his 4 SYs left before Good Friday three weeks ago. They have no interest in celebrating the Resurrection message of Easter, the holiest day in the Age that Was, just like other SYs. SYs like Hasan has no interest in the opening of the Sahasrara (Kingdom of God with) by the Paraclete Shri Mataji on May 5, 1970, the holiest day in the Age that has Come, just like other SYs for the last five decades.

I now rest my case against Satan (Iblis) after 25 years of spiritual litigation.
