to me

Dear Jagbir,

A number of years ago a quote from Revelation, Chapter 12, Verse 1 was sent to the forum. At that time, Jagbir, you mentioned your intent to comment on that verse.

Perhaps I missed the comment, but since I cannot presently find it, would you consider commenting on this verse now?

'And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars'. Revelation, Chapter 12, Verse 1

Some comments on the following extracts from Revelation would also be highly welcomed. Do they seem to reflect a familiarity with the very present age we are experiencing?

If you are aware of any quotes of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi regarding these REVELATION verses written by 'John' in the Bible, it would be appreciated if you could send me HER quotes, and/or to your present forum, if you are so inclined.

Thanks and regards,

Gerlinde

Gerlinde, I advise you against trying to understand the entire Book of Revelation and so will put it in a nutshell i.e., tell you in this single post what Jesus and the Paraclete are revealing in the Age that has Come. It will help you focus on the Resurrection and meditate on "The Mother" 24/7.

Since HALF THE SKY is about 2050 then Revelation 17:9-10 is precisely for those "souls making their way to God." and striving others towards the hearing the Good News of the Resurrection and life eternal. It also warns about Christians destined for spiritual death.

The Book of Revelation unveils the personalities of the End Times

The word Revelation, the Greek word apocalypse, tell us the nature of the book. Apocalypse means "an unveiling," a taking away of that which obscures and makes it clear. Apocalypses have to do with mysteries and their meaning.

So, throughout this book, we will find many mysteries made clear. The mystery of evil is unveiled. Why does it persist on the earth and what is its ultimate end? The mystery of godliness is made clear. How can one live a godly, righteous life in the midst of a broken and evil world?

Many other mysteries are unveiled and that is why the book begins with that term. It is also a book largely of symbols. Symbols are important as they are ways of understanding things that you cannot draw a picture of. Something that is rather abstruse or difficult to understand can be made known by symbols.

"A little later in that same paragraph we read, 'Blessed is the one who reads the words of this prophecy.' This book is not only an unveiling but also a prediction. It deals with persons and events which are yet to come, as the prologue tells us; 'what must soon take place.' We will learn what personalities are yet to appear on the stage of history in the last days, and what great events will unfold as history rolls on to its final consummation. This book will make that clear." [emphasis added]

Book of Revelation is least read and most difficult to interpret

Biblical scholars believe that around 90 CE the Book of Revelation was written, the only apocalypse in the New Testament and the "last book of the Bible ... the least read and most difficult." Revelation has had a tremendous influence on our culture and history, not only motivating millions of believers but contributing vivid images and phrases to popular culture, from the "four horsemen of the Apocalypse" to the "mark of the beast."

Borrowing much of its imagery from the Book of Daniel, Revelation is fairly typical of the revolutionary eschatology of the time. Because of intricate and unusual symbolic language, the Book of Revelation is hard for modern people to read. They are not used to this kind of literature. It is puzzling and difficult to interpret as "its language is shrouded with mystery, its ideas are clothed in imagery, symbolism, myth, and numerology."

"Essentially it's a book about the wrath of God being poured out upon the world. People not repenting except for the small group of faithful followers of God, and this awful wicked beast power ruling the whole world, and defying God, shaking his fist at God. And finally Jesus coming, not as a Prince of Peace at all, not as a lamb, but at the end of the book, as a rider on a horse, a warrior with a sword, to smite the nations. In one of the quotes that comes to my mind it says, 'He will rule the nations with a rod of iron, as a potter strikes a pot with iron and it just completely shatters.'" [emphasis added]

James Tabor, PBS, Frontline: Apocalypticism Explained, The Book of Revelation

Book of Revelation "accurately foretells what will happen in the last days of history before the end of the world" warming of the global warning.

According to the Dictionary of the Bible Revelation "accurately foretells what will happen in the last days of history before the end of the world." The Illustrated Bible Dictionary is of a similar opinion: "happenings that will take place in connection with the second coming of the Lord ... leads up to the final establishment of the rule of God ... Futurist views take with the greatest seriousness the language of the book about end-time."

The Book of Revelation, being the last chapter, anchors the Bible to its eschatological mooring. If the Age that has Come is about unconditional love and life eternal for those with ears that hear, the Book of Revelation is for them to flee from the Beast of Septem Montes.

I have added the Third Secret of Fatima to bring the Beast of the Book of Revelation into a better perspective. However, it will only make sense for those diligently following in Jesus' footsteps since HALF THE SKY was set up last year. If you are one of the "souls making their way to God" then it will bring apocalyptic clarity as to what Jesus and the Paraclete have warned about the Beast (Satan) of Septem Montes:

When John wrote these things, Rome had rule over the kings of the earth. Since just one city in the world was called the city of seven mountains (septem montes) in John's time the reference is to Rome and the Vatican.

Only the minds of those taking part in the Resurrection can comprehend the events and prophecies that have unfolded since the advent of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi on this Earth on March 21, 1923. The Book of Revelation is just one of the many from the Bible, Torah, Quran, Guru Granth Sahib, Devi Gita and others.

Revelation 17:9-10 in particular concerns us since it is triggered by the beginning of the Paraclete appearing on the world stage commencing with the May 5, 1970 opening of the Sahasrara Chakra (Kingdom of God).

And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits.

And there are seven kings; five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; And when he cometh, he must continue a short space.

Book of Revelation 17:9-10

The seven heads are the remaining popes who will reside in the Vatican, the City of Septem Montes (Seven Mountains) after the Comforter Shri Mataji opened the Sahasrara Chakra in 1970.

In other words, only seven popes (seven kings) will remain in the City of Rome (seven mountains) where the Vatican (woman) sits and reigns over the nations. Five popes are already fallen (have become kings), one is (in line for the papacy) and the last is yet to come. The five who have become popes are:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| i) Paul VI [G. Battista Montini]: | 21 June 1963 — 06 August 1978 |
| ii) John Paul I [Albino Luciani]: | 26 August 1978 — 28 September 1978 |
| iii) John Paul II [Karol Wojtyła]: | 16 October 1978 — 02 April 2005 |
| iv) Benedict XVI [Joseph Ratzinger]: | 19 April 2005 — 28 February 2013 |
| v) Pope Francis [Jorge Bergoglio]: | 13 March 2013 — |
| vi) | |
| vii) | |

There are now only two future popes remaining—"and one is" i.e., existing as a cardinal to be eligible for papacy; "the other is not yet come" i.e., is still not a cardinal, and when he does become a pope "he must continue a short space."

It seems like 2050 is the likely time Revelation 17:9-10 ends the papacy. (If Catholics find out that those following popes, bishops, priests and fellow church members are destined for spiritual death, what are the chances of the Vatican surviving 2050?)

This beast (Satan) with seven heads has a double signification, i.e., the seven mountains or hills which surrounds Rome in which the woman (Vatican) sits and the seven kings or popes are those elected during the advent of the Paraclete's opening of the Kingdom of God (Sahasrara Chakra) May 5, 1970. Revelation 17:9-10 is specific to the Beast (Satan) whose seven heads are the seven remaining kings (popes) who, as self-proclaimed Vicars of Christ, will oppose Jesus and the message of the Resurrection.

The Catholic Church is destined for divine destruction by the incarnation of "The Mother"—the Paraclete Shri Mataji—and no force on Earth will be able to prevent it. Not only the Book of Revelation confirms that but so does the third part of the Three Secrets of Fatima revealed at Cova da Iria-Fátima, Portugal on 13 July 1917.

Third Fatima Secret reveals the Holy Papa, bishops, priests, Catholics killed

"I write in obedience to you, my God, who command me to do so through his Excellency the Bishop of Leiria and through your Most Holy Mother and mine.

After the two parts which I have already explained, at the left of Our Lady and a little above, we saw an Angel with a flaming sword in his left hand; flashing, it gave out flames that looked as though they would set the world on fire; but they died out in contact with the splendour that Our Lady radiated towards him from her right hand: pointing to the earth with his right hand, the Angel cried out in a loud voice: 'Penance, Penance, Penance!'

And we saw in an immense light that is God: 'something similar to how people appear in a mirror when they pass in front of it' a Bishop dressed in White 'we had the impression that it was the Holy Father'.

Other Bishops, Priests, men and women religious going up a steep mountain, at the top of which there was a big Cross of rough-hewn trunks as of a cork-tree with the bark; before reaching there the Holy Father passed through a big city half in ruins and half trembling with halting step, afflicted with pain and sorrow, he prayed for the souls of the corpses he met on his way; having reached the top of the mountain, on his knees at the foot of the big Cross he was killed by a group of soldiers who fired bullets and arrows at him, and in the same way there died one after another the other Bishops, Priests, men and women religious, and various lay people of different ranks and positions.

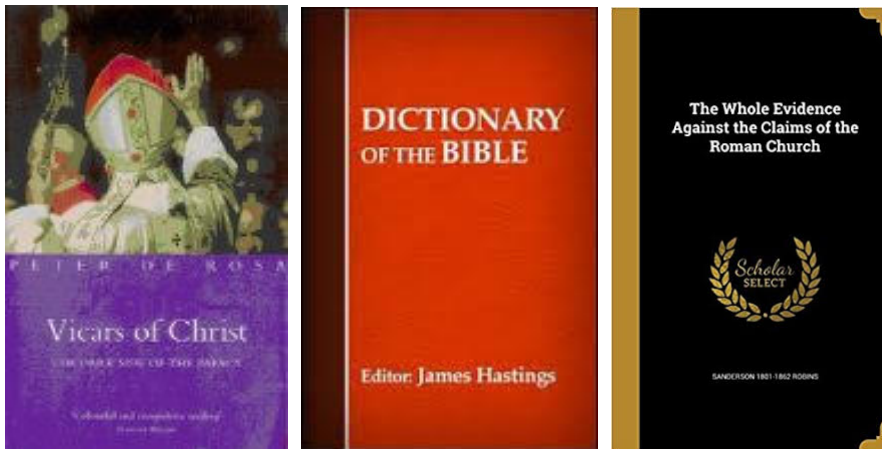

Beneath the two arms of the Cross there were two Angels each with a crystal aspersorium in his hand, in which they gathered up the blood of the Martyrs and with it sprinkled the souls that were making their way to God." [emphasis added]

Tuy-3-1-1944.

Those who follow the Popes, bishops or priests will not make it and are destined for spiritual death in the Age that has Come. Only those who have ears that hear are sprinkled with the blessings of eternal life in the Age that has Come. Only "souls ... making their way to God" prophesied in the Book of Revelation and third Fatima secret will enter the Kingdom of God.

May HALF THE SKY never seek a papa for salvation when the blessings of the Resurrection of your Most Holy Mother and mine assures life eternal for those already making their way to the Kingdom of God. There is no Most Holy Papa in Heaven or Earth or your heart. Amen.

"Distortion begins in the lists of the popes where all but one of the first thirty popes are described as martyrs. They probably were martyrs in the sense of 'witness of the faith'. There is no evidence that all died for Christ. Further, among the popes were a large number of married men, some of whom gave up their wives and children in exchange for the papal office. Many were sons of priests, bishops and popes, some were bastards; one was a widower, another an ex-slave; several were murderers, some unbelievers; some were hermits, some heretics, sadists and sodomites; many became popes by buying the papacy (simony), and continued their days selling holy things to rake in the money; one at least was a Satan-worshiper; some fathered illegitimate children, some were fornicators and adulterers on a grand scale; some were astonishingly old, some even more astonishingly young; some were poisoned, others strangled; worst of all were those who worshipped a granite God."

Peter de Rosa, Vicars of Christ: The Dark Side of the Papacy
Bantam Press, 1988, p. 204

“ANTICHRIST — The great opponent and counterpart of Christ, by whom he is finally to be conquered. The words appears only in the NT (1 Jn 2:18-22, 4:3, 2 Jn 7), where, when used in the plural, it describes those who oppose the true Christian message ... While the precise term 'Antichrist' is lacking in Jewish literature, the idea of an opponent, who persecutes God's people and is ultimately to be conquered by the Messiah, is an integral part of that general hope ... the Satanic opponent whom the Christ would utterly destroy as a pre-condition of establishing His Kingdom of God ... In the Dead Sea Scrolls, the wicked priest, as opposed to the teacher of righteousness, plays a part not unlike that of the eschatological Antichrist, whose action withholds the instauration of the Kingdom, versus Christ and His faithful.” [emphasis added]

The Identity of the Apostasy

"When we look through the pages of history we find that no religious system fits this description except the Roman Catholic Church with its leader, the Pope. Consider the following evidence:

1. The Church rose out of the Roman Empire in 320 AD when the Roman Emperor Constantine became converted to Catholicism and with him, the majority of the Roman world.
2. The Church gained support and rose to be a great world power for 1260 years with its Pope ruling like an emperor, during the years 606-1866 AD. ^[1]
3. The leaders of the Church (the Popes) have taken their seat in what they call the "temple of God" (actually St. Peter's in Rome), and proclaimed themselves to be God on earth. The very title "Pope" comes from the Latin word "papa" which means "father"^[2], and Jesus warned us to "call no man your father on earth, for you have one Father, who is in heaven." (Matthew 23:9). Thus the Popes and priests have taken upon themselves a title which only God deserves.
4. The Popes have not only blasphemed God by allowing themselves to be called "Pope", but have also allowed and encouraged such titles as "our Lord God the Pope"^[3], "the Holy Father"^[4], and the "Vicar of Christ"^[5] to be used of themselves. The Roman Catholic Priests are also blasphemers of God in that the very name which they like to be called ("Father") is specifically forbidden by Jesus Christ to be used of any man on earth because God is our Father (Matthew 23:9). Furthermore, according to a decree from the Council of Trent, priests are to be "called not only angels, but also God"^[6], which blasphemes the God of heaven all the more!
5. The Church has believed and taught for centuries the incarnation of Christ, and that the Son of God had a pre-existence as a spirit. These two doctrines of the Church separate Christ from his body of flesh and their end result is that the Son of God did not come "In the flesh."
6. For centuries the Church persecuted, tormented and even killed thousands of the people who would not join. There were times when it tortured and slaughtered anyone found reading the Bible. When men began translating the Bible into the common language of the people, the Church called them heretics and sought to burn or drown them. The pages of history are full of examples of men and women who were persecuted, tortured and even killed by the Church as it made "War on the saints and conquered them."^[7]
7. The Church and its leaders remain to be overthrown by Jesus when he returns. Since Jesus has not returned yet, we cannot look to history for the fulfillment of this event. But we know from the Word of God that the false religious system must be destroyed so that Jesus can replace it with his own system and establish the Kingdom of God.

For a more detailed account of how closely the Roman Catholic Church fits the characteristics in Scripture of the great apostate Church, the reader is encouraged to look into some of the many books available on the history of the papal Church.^[8]

"Fifty-eight million American Roman Catholics call him "Holy Father" (in violation of Matthew 23:9). He is revered as the head of the church on earth (though Christ possesses all authority, in heaven and on earth, and is the exclusive head of the church (Matt. 28:18; Col. 1:18).

Devotees of the Catholic religion assert that he is the successor of "Saint Peter," and they contend that his authority is derived from the fact that the church was founded upon Peter. World leaders drool at his feet. The United States has an ambassador (supported with tax revenues) to his little "state" of 108 acres, the Vatican. We are speaking, of course, of the Roman pontiff, John Paul II.

The doctrine of the primacy of Peter, and the papal authority supposedly derived from the Lord's apostle, is the very foundation of Roman Catholicism. The system, however, is barren of any semblance of biblical support....

As a matter of fact, the term "pope" is not even in the New Testament!"

Reflections on the Pope, Christian Courier: Archives,

"Pope is another horrible fake guru sitting here. Then we have another one which is of Canterbury sitting there. All of them are false gurus - know nothing about Kundalini, don't know anything of Brahma,... So they want to propound that they are the solution, achieving nothing, spoiling the name of Christ, and doing all kinds of things against Him stupidly, without knowing the Divine."

"It's a very serious thing they have done against Christ. And still going on. Still this Catholic Church, though being exposed so much, is still going on - in India also, all over. It's stupid. This Protestant Church also is going on everywhere. What good name have they brought to Christ, one should see. The first and foremost thing He has said that you must enter into the Kingdom of God, that you must be born again.

So it's all mental: You are born again. You have a certificate. We are born again. Finished. So this mental attitude of the West is responsible for killing the great Incarnation of Christ, so I think it's another crucifixion. Mentally, you cannot understand spirituality."

THE MOTHER: Messiah-Paraclete-Ruh

"You do not judge God from the people who talk about God. Anybody can talk about God because they think there is no law that can catch them. They can talk for Him, against Him, or they can do what they like. They can even make money by talking against God and against all the Prophets. So, first of all, we have to be a little independent to be free."

"In those days of complete chaos and anarchy, He (Jesus Christ) stood up and talked about Truth and about such things like Spirit, like ascent. I mean, they were all blind people. They didn't know what it was He was talking. And He talked about it. There's lot of myths that exist in the Bible and one of them is that when the Resurrection Time will come, your bodies will come out of your graves. It is not only with Christianity, but also with the Muslims and also for the Jews. Now think of it, after so many years, what remains in the graves? Few bones and these few bones, if they come out, how can you give them Realization? Think of it. It's a big myth. One should understand. Logically, it's not proper. So, what is the thing?"
