Jagadish Vasudev aka Sadguru will lead you to worship Shiva and that's about it. But he is a very articulate and knowledgeable speaker who knows spiritual stuff well. However, he will not be able to tell you anything about the Resurrection, cool breeze of those born of the Spirit, or "The Mother."

And when it comes to worshipping Shiva, there are a lot of rituals to follow and mantras to chant. For me, even a single ritual is one too many.

Ultimately you will realize that it is You who is the Devi, the Observer, the Brahman, when you meditate on the Sadguru within yourself. So, by extension, you are the Sadguru too.

"Aadays, tisai aadays. Aad aneel anaad anaahat, jug jug ayko vays. Obeisance, obeisance to Her, the Primal, the Immaculate, without beginning, without end, Immutable through all ages.

Aykaa maa-ee, jugat viaaee, tin chalay parvaan.
The One Divine Mother conceived and gave birth to the three deities.

Ik sansaaree, ik bhandaaree, ik laa-ay deeban.
One was creator (Brahma), one sustainer (Vishnu), and one destroyer (Shiva) of the world.

Jiv tis bhaavai, tivai chalaavai, jiv havai phurmaan.
The world moves as She ordains and as She pleases.

Oh vaykahi, onaa nadar na aavai, buhuta ayho vidaan.
She watches over all, but no one sees Her: this is a great wonder."
