THE MOTHER is 1% Father and 99% MOTHER, 1% Deva and 99% DEVI, 1% Half the Sky and 99% HALF THE SKY, 1% Church and 99% Mary Magdalene, 1% Vatican and 99% Uxmal, 1% Moonshine and 99% Sunshine, 1% pariah Beast and 99% Beauty, 1% ear and 99% hear. (July 11, 2021)

This 22-page extract will provide HALF THE SKY the detailed roadmap to complete their mission to bring about the greatest miracle of all by 2050.

There is no question that "the Divine Woman is a concept foreign to the current monotheistic religions, and one to which there is great resistance." Hindus, Buddhists, and Sikhs will resist Her. Even Jains, Bengalis, and Nepalese. I do not have to mention Jews, Christians, and Muslims. Their Yahweh, Father, Allah, Devi, Buddha, Waheguru, Durga and Kali are supreme, no matter the evidence to the contrary.

If that is the case, as has been for millennia, how will it be possible for the few here to do the impossible within three decades? Is 2050 a lost cause that has no chance of fruition? Can HALF THE SKY succeed in projecting THE MOTHER (Brahman) onto human consciousness?

Jesus, by sending the Holy Spirit in the Age that has Come, renders the patriarchal synagogues, churches, and mosques impotent of delivering eternal life. The DEVI, by sending the Adi Shakti in the Age of Kali Yuga, renders the patriarchal mandirs, temples, and gurdwaras impotent of delivering moksa. Why should anyone, especially women seek salvation from any god that degrades their divinity in one way or another?

But THE MOTHER is far superior to all the gods of all religions, monotheistic or otherwise. She has returned after 5000 years by making all gods impotent during the Age that has Come. She is embedded in all the scriptures barring none. However, it is in the Bible that She is firmly entrenched as the Holy Spirit of the Resurrection.

"Likewise, whenever a saying of Jesus refers to spirit, we must remember that he would have used an Aramaic or Hebrew word. In both of these languages, the same word stands for spirit, breath, air, and wind. So "Holy Spirit" must also be "Holy Breath." The duality of spirit and body, which we often take for granted in our Western languages, falls away. If Jesus made the famous statement about speaking or sinning against the Holy Spirit (for instance, in Luke 12:10), then somehow Middle Eastern concept of breath is also involved." (Douglas-Klotz 2020, 1)

That quote above is from The Hidden Gospel: Decoding the Spiritual Message of the Aramaic Jesus. But no matter how much can be extracted from this book, or thousands of others about Jesus for the matter, none are written from the perspective of the Paraclete-

Holy Spirit completing His message, initiating the Cool Breeze of the Resurrection, and remaining within for all times.

"If you love me, keep my commands. And I will ask the Spirit, who will give you another Advocate [in the Age to Come] to help you and be with you forever—the Spirit of truth. The world cannot accept Her, because it neither sees Her nor knows Her. But you know Her, for She lives with you and will be in you. John 14:15-17

He declared: "You know Her, for She now lives with you and will be in you forever." Christians are unable to comprehend how that is possible since it means attaining life eternal on Earth itself, which is exactly the case. Those with ears that hear do realize that the resurrection of Christ is the particle-wave evolution of the Holy Spirit. Those who feel the Cool Breeze do understand that the eternal life of the Savior is the redemption of the Holy Breath.

In the meantime, I have raised the bar at www.adishakti.org to challenge all Jews, Christians, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, Jains and others; those for whom "the Divine Woman is a concept foreign to the current monotheistic religions, and one to which there is great resistance." It all comes down to dishonest disbelief.

Dishonest disbelief is the norm for the tens of thousands of religious sects of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, Jainism and others. They are all clinging to generations of inherited ignorance and centuries of religious conditioning.

Jews, Christians, Muslims cannot accept anything other than graves bursting open in the future, even as the Resurrection continues in the Age that has Come. Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, Jains and others want to continue waiting for moksa even though release is available in Kaliyuga.

The reason for dishonest belief is that ears of Jews, Christians, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, Jains and others do not want to hear about the Divine Woman that Jenny Kien visualizes, one that HALF THE SKY must also visualize:

"My concept of both the goddess and the Divine Woman is purely modern and is not a re-interpretation of the concepts behind the old goddesses of previous cultures. I do not use the term "Divine Woman" interchangeably with goddess as others have done, for the idea of goddess is only one part of my concept of the Divine Woman. For me, the Divine Woman comprises femaleness in Divinity (the goddess) and holiness in women, as well as the interaction between them. That is, the Divine Woman encompasses those aspects of the world emphasized by the femaleness of a woman-like goddess and the effects on society of calling Deity female.

At the most abstract level, I imagine the goddess as the creative force of the universe, the force that makes the atoms dance and split, their particles moving between energy and matter, the force that makes the stars need to grow and create solar systems and the force that makes galaxies spread. She is the Life Force that makes species grow, evolve and differentiate, that makes organisms grow and cells divide, the Life Force that makes us grow and will to live. She is Life or Being itself, the principle of life, of movement, of development and change. She is immanent or all-present. As the Being in the Universe, she is everything there is, in the cosmos and on Earth." (Kien 2000, 4-5)

For THE MOTHER there is no Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Sikhism, or Jainism. There are no Jews, Christians, Muslims, Hindus, Buddhists, Sikhs, or Jains. There are no synagogues, churches, mosques, mandirs, temples, or gurdwaras. There are no Fathers, Pitas, Bhagwans, Allahs, Yahwehs, Gods, or consorts.

THE MOTHER, already embedded in every scripture, reveals Her presence in Judaism (Messiah), Christianity (Holy Spirit), Islam (Ruh). Hinduism (Devi), Sikhism (Aykaa Mayee), Buddhism (Prajnaparamita), and Taoism (Tao).

THE MOTHER has strung together the patriarchal pearls of Judaism, Christianity, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism and Sikhism into a priceless necklace for those whose fathers cannot string them together. (March 26, 2020)

“In the text, she first appears as a blazing light, symbolizing brahman, then transforms into a womanly figure, who is the Supreme Ruler Bhuvaneshvari.” (June 20, 2021)

“Your Guru is a Woman! She is the source of all the knowledge. She is the Ocean of All the Knowledge.” HALF THE SKY “are the ones who are going to save the world, not the men... The whole Cosmos, just in complete respectful attendance, is waiting for their arrival... You are very important.” (June 22, 2021)

One day THE MOTHER will remove the illusion of the Father, and there will be no Other. (October 9, 2019)

THE MOTHER: The Goddess declares that the “subtle body, that is my own rarefied form.” “How else could souls be reborn into future lives? ...” (April 27, 2021)

THE MOTHER is Antarjami, Earth, Universe, Consciousness, Quantum Mechanics, your Self. She is your subtle body. If you move a single step in any direction to find Her you will be going the wrong way. Where and how can you find and realize your Self when She has been your Self, your individual Mitochondrial Mother since time immemorial?

“How can we reinstate the Divine Woman? Ideally, we should work at all her levels, reinstating the concept of the goddess as Life in the universe, reinstating the anthropomorphic Great Goddess, or her versions as goddesses, and reinstating customs of honoring ourselves as women. All these changes would radically affect our societies and our religions, but our societies and religions would probably have to be radically different to enable us to introduce such changes. Obviously, the Divine Woman is a concept foreign to the current monotheistic religions, and one to which there is great resistance.” (Kine 2000, 6)

Since there is enormous opposition from established religions, then the surest way to re-establish the Divine Woman is through the Savior's gospel of the Resurrection, the Al-Naba (Great News) of Al-Qiyamah (The Resurrection), the t'chiyat hameitim (general Resurrection) of the Messianic Age.

The Paraclete-Holy Spirit promised by Jesus has arrived and completed His message in the Age that has Come. The Holy Breath is being experienced as the Cool Breeze by those born again of Spirit and taking part in the Resurrection. She is the Glorious Mother, the true God of Jesus who directly reveals the transcendent truth.

“The supreme Gnostic heresy was to see Yahweh, the tribal deity of the Old Testament, the tribal deity of the Old Testament, as a false god — a vicious and foolish creator of an imperfect world. A Gnostic text called 'On the Origins of the World' writes of this false god hiding the real God both from others and from himself. The god of religion is not the God of the Gnostic mystics. A religion fixes God and defines his characteristics, but the real power of divinity is forever ineffable and can only be known through direct mystical experience, not creeds and dogmas. For the Gnostic mystics, all the villains of the Old Testament — Cain, Esau, the Sodomites — become heroes for resisting the presumptuous Yahweh. A text called The Testimony of Truth tells the story of Genesis from the serpent's point of view. The serpent is a messenger from the true God of divine wisdom; it comes not to tempt Adam and Eve, but to guide them away from the tyrannical Yahweh and towards a direct knowledge of the true reality. [emphasis ours]

For the Gnostics, Jesus is not the son of a partisan Jewish god, but the son of the true God who is the oneness that underlies all. He comes not to save people from offending against the rules laid down by an autocratic creator, but directly to reveal the transcendent truth. The true God of Jesus is beyond all ideas, and so can be equally pictured as both father and mother. A Gnostic text has God declaring:

*I am the Thought that dwells in the Light. She who exists above all, I move in every creature. I am the Invisible One within the All. I am perfection. I am knowledge. I cry out in everyone and they know a seed dwells within them. I am androgynous. I am both Mother and Father since I make love with myself. I am the womb that gives shape to All. I am the Glorious Mother."* [emphasis ours]*

The Complete Guide to World Mysticism (Paperback)
by Timothy Freke and Peter Gandy, page 103-4
Publisher: Piatkus Books; New Ed edition (October 1998)

Jesus, through the Paraclete Shri Mataji and the Glorious Mother within, "comes not to save people from offending against the rules laid down by an autocratic creator, but directly to reveal the transcendent truth."

All HALF THE SKY needs to do is to persevere against the "false god hiding the real God both from others and from himself." Jesus deliberately chose crucifixion so that by revealing the transcendent truth of Resurrection in the Age to Come the Prince of this World can be finally defeated.

(NDEs and Quantum Mechanics are going to make the Resurrection scientifically sound. There is neither death nor judgment. The subtle body or soul is immortal as it is pure consciousness, the rarified form of the Goddess.)

But the transcendent truth of Resurrection has not been declared to all peoples and nations for the last 50 years. Today we are facing the same negative forces that Jesus faced 2000 years ago i.e., the Prince of this World.

However, though the Paraclete failed THE MOTHER will triumph through HALF THE SKY because the greatest miracle of all is given exclusively to women. They "are the ones who are going to save the world, not the men... The whole Cosmos, just in complete respectful attendance, is waiting for their arrival."

"Jesus solemnly assures the disciples that they will, in the future, perform even greater miracles than He. By this He means to say that through the power of the Holy Spirit, they will bring about the greatest miracle of all—the salvation of lost souls. He promises them that whatever they ask for, in connection with their ministry of bringing the miracle of salvation to lost men, will be granted them." (Stallings 1989, 205)

The Savior "promises them that whatever they ask for, in connection with their ministry of bringing the miracle of salvation to lost men, will be granted them." Amen.

* "I am both Mother and Father since I make love with myself. I am the womb that gives shape to All. I am the Glorious Mother."

This androgynous nature of the Glorious Mother is of immense importance as the Devi also speaks in similar terms. I will extract that evidence and present it in the future. THE MOTHER is the Source of all feminine forms.
