Shri Mataji and Her disciples.

Dear all

Some new information provoked these questions,

In the history of spirituality, can there be anything more miserable than what was done to Shri Mataji ?

Is there any incarnation other than Shri Mataji whoes disciples betrayed completely?

Is there any incarnation other than Shri Mataji who was completely surrounded by evil disciples ?

Is there any Incarnation other than Shri Mataji who was completely alone while on earth ?

Please do correct me if I am wrong.

regards
shruti

Dear Shruti and all,

I read this in the morning and 12 hours later I still am in Silence as to the scope of deception and sabotage of Shri Mataji's message.

"Normally I get letters about people who are sick and their parents are sick or their... this is sick, all kinds of things. Then somebody's marriage is broken. Then somebody has children, they are sick...—I mean all kind nonsensical problems they do it.

The reason is they themselves, those who write, are not realised souls, or maybe they are half way, because they could themselves say that: "Why should we write to Mother? We can get it done ourselves!"

Instead of that, one has to write what they have achieved, how they have achieved very much, how they have got love from others, how they have worked out Sahaja Yoga in small villages. All this is much better to write than to write: "My mother is sick, my father is sick." All these relationships, they go on killing you.

So no more is your brother. Nobody is your sister. Only Sahaja Yogis are your brothers and sisters. Now you have some cousin and its cousin's cousin and... So let it be. That's not your job. You don't have to work it out. Even before coming, I got letters like that. Somebody cousin's cousin's... this thing.

So I asked this lady, I said, "Why do you write all these things all the time about this cousin and that cousin?" She says, "Mother, I am trying to spread Sahaja Yoga." "How?" "Because if they'll be cured, then they will come to Sahaja Yoga."

This is not the way we want to spread Sahaja Yoga. This looks like advertising or something, speciality that you should cure somebody, then some people will come to Sahaja Yoga. We just don't want such people to come.

I don't want to hurt, but I want to give you courage and understanding and the wisdom. What, why are we Sahaja Yogis here? Just to cure all the relations of ours? They may be sick because of some mistakes they have committed.

Instead of paying attention to all these such people, you should pay attention to yourself and to your ascent. You have to respect yourself. If you are their relation, it's none of your business. Like understanding, wisdom, that we have come here for a very, very special work, of very high quality. If that is not there, then all such people write to Me."

Since May 5, 1970 no SY leader or otherwise, have initiated any form of action as to the "very, very special work, of very high quality". Instead, they have continued to use the ruse of being able to cure incurable diseases to lure seekers. This is a cartel that controls thousands of subtle-system brainwashed fools to do so. After decades of absolute failures, they still continue to do so. And all the while Shri Mataji was expecting them to do that "very, very special work".

All that seekers found at SY centers post-May 5, 1970—after attending Shri Mataji's public programs—were explanations and talks about the subtle system, chakras, and kundalini. 99.9% left and never came back. Nothing in history even comes a distant second as to the collective scope of lies, deception, and subterfuge to keep the message of the Resurrection and Last Judgment from reaching humanity.

Actually, I should not use the words distant second. It should be NONE!

regards,
jagbir
