

"The Paraclete will come (15:26; 16:7, 8, 13) as Jesus has come into the world (5:43; 16:28; 18:37) ... The Paraclete will take the things of Christ (the things that are mine, ek tou emou) and declare them (16:14-15). Bishop Fison describes the humility of the Spirit, 'the true Holy Spirit of God does not advertise Herself: She effaces Herself and advertises Jesus.' ... It is by the outgoing activity of the Spirit that the divine life communicates itself in and to the creation. The Spirit is God-in-relations. The Paraclete is the divine self-expression which will be and abide with you, and be in you (14:16-17). The Spirit's work is described in terms of utterance: teach you, didasko (14:26); remind you, hypomimnesko (15:26), testify, martyro (15:26), prove wrong, elancho (16:8), guide into truth, hodego (16:13) speak, laleo (16:13, twice), declare, anangello (16:13, 14, 15). The johannine terms describe verbal actions which intend a response in others who will receive (lambano), see (theoreo), or know (ginosko) the Spirit. Such speech-terms link the Spirit with the divine Word. The Spirit's initiatives imply God's personal engagement with humanity. The Spirit comes to be with others; the teaching Spirit implies a community of learners; forgetful persons need a prompter to remind them; one testifies expecting heed to be paid; one speaks and declares in order to be heard. The articulate Spirit is the correlative of the listening, Spirit informed community. The final Paraclete passage closes with a threefold repetition of the verb she will declare (anangello), 16:13-15. The Spirit will declare the things that are to come (v.13), and she will declare what is Christ's (vv. 14, 15). The things of Christ are a message that must be heralded."

"We may speak about the function of the Paraclete under two separate categories:

1. The relationship of the Paraclete to the disciples. The Paraclete:
  - a. Is easily recognized by the disciples (14:17).
  - b. Is within and continues to remain with them (14:16-17).
  - c. Is their teacher (16:13).
  - d. Announces to them things that are to occur in the future (16:13).
  - e. Declares what belongs to Christ and what does not (16:14).
  - f. Glorifies Christ (16:14).
  - g. Witnesses to Christ (15:26).
  - h. Reminds the disciples of all that Jesus said (14:26).
  - i. Speaks only what is heard (16:13)."

The Paraclete and the Disciples: A Blog Post

The Paraclete is a term that Jesus uses in the Gospel of John to refer to the Holy Spirit, who is sent by God to help, comfort, and guide the disciples after Jesus' departure. The word Paraclete means "one who is called alongside" or "advocate". In this blog post, we will explore the relationship of the Paraclete to the disciples, based on the keywords given by Bing on August 29, 2023.

- The Paraclete is easily recognized by the disciples (14:17). This means that the disciples have a special connection with the Holy Spirit, who is the spirit of truth and reveals Jesus to them. The Holy Spirit enables the disciples to see and know Jesus, even though he is no longer physically present with them.
- The Paraclete is within and continues to remain with them (14:16-17). This means that the Holy Spirit is not an external force, but an indwelling presence that guides and empowers the disciples. The Holy Spirit dwells in the hearts of the disciples and gives them strength, courage, and wisdom to follow Jesus' commands and mission.
- The Paraclete is their teacher (16:13). This means that the Holy Spirit instructs the disciples in all things, especially in understanding the words and deeds of Jesus. The Holy Spirit enlightens the minds of the disciples and helps them comprehend the mysteries of God's kingdom and plan.
- The Paraclete announces to them things that are to occur in the future (16:13). This means that the Holy Spirit prepares the disciples for what is to come, such as the persecution, suffering, and glory of Jesus and his followers. The Holy Spirit reveals to the disciples what God has in store for them and for the world, and assures them of God's presence and victory.
- The Paraclete declares what belongs to Christ and what does not (16:14). This means that the Holy Spirit testifies to the identity and authority of Jesus, who is the source of all truth and grace. The Holy Spirit confirms and validates what Jesus has said and done, and exposes what is false and contrary to Jesus' will.
- The Paraclete glorifies Christ (16:14). This means that the Holy Spirit magnifies and praises Jesus, who is the revelation of God's love and glory. The Holy Spirit exalts and honors Jesus, who is worthy of all worship and adoration.

- The Paraclete witnesses to Christ (15:26). This means that the Holy Spirit confirms and supports the witness of Jesus, who is the light of the world and the way to God. The Holy Spirit joins and assists the disciples in proclaiming and demonstrating Jesus' message and works.

- The Paraclete reminds the disciples of all that Jesus said (14:26). This means that the Holy Spirit helps the disciples remember and apply the teachings of Jesus, who is the word of life and the bread of life. The Holy Spirit recalls and reinforces what Jesus has taught and commanded, and helps the disciples live according to his example.

- The Paraclete speaks only what is heard (16:13). This means that the Holy Spirit does not speak on her own authority, but on behalf of Jesus, who is one with God and speaks God's words. The Holy Spirit communicates only what she receives from Jesus, who is the truth and the life.

The question that Bing asked at the end of his keywords was: Has the Paraclete Shri Mataji discharged Her duty over four decades from May 5, 1970 till Her passing away February 23, 2011 in relation to Her disciples? This question refers to a specific interpretation of the Paraclete as Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, who was an Indian spiritual leader and founder of Sahaja Yoga. She claimed to be an incarnation of the Paraclete who came to awaken humanity's spiritual potential through a process called self-realization. She also claimed to have fulfilled many prophecies from various religions.

The answer to this question depends on one's perspective and belief system. Some may accept Shri Mataji as a genuine manifestation of the Paraclete, while others may reject her as a false or deluded teacher. Some may find evidence for her claims in her teachings, miracles, and followers, while others may find flaws or contradictions in her doctrines, actions, or legacy. Some may regard her as a source of spiritual enlightenment, healing, and peace, while others may regard her as a cause of confusion, division, or deception.

Therefore, this question cannot be answered objectively or conclusively by this blog post. It is up to each individual to examine the available information and make their own informed and personal decision. However, this blog post hopes to provide some background and context for understanding the concept of the Paraclete and its relation to the disciples, as well as to Shri Mataji and her movement.

"Now in the Bible it is described that He is going to send a Counsellor, a Comforter and a Redeemer; what about that? Why don't you seek for that?" The Paraclete Shri Mataji, Sangli, India—31st December 1986

Many people are familiar with the biblical prophecies of a coming Messiah, who would be sent by God to guide, comfort and redeem humanity. But how many of them have actually sought for this promised one? How many of them have opened their hearts and minds to the possibility of meeting the Counsellor, the Comforter and the Redeemer in their lifetime?

This is the question that Shri Mataji, a spiritual teacher and founder of Sahaja Yoga, posed to a large audience in Sangli, India, on the last day of 1986. She explained that the Paraclete, or the Holy Spirit, is none other than the power of God's love that awakens our dormant spiritual potential and connects us to our true self. She said that this power is available to everyone, regardless of their religion, culture or background, and that it can transform our lives in miraculous ways.

Shri Mataji invited the seekers of truth to experience the Paraclete for themselves, by receiving their self-realization, or the awakening of their Kundalini energy. She said that this is the ultimate purpose of human existence, and that it can be achieved effortlessly and spontaneously through her grace. She assured them that this is not a mental or emotional process, but a living and tangible reality that can be verified by our own sensations and perceptions.

She also warned them not to fall prey to false prophets and false gurus, who exploit people's ignorance and innocence for their own gain. She said that the Paraclete is the only true teacher, who resides within us and guides us from within. She said that we have to become our own masters, and not depend on anyone else for our spiritual growth.

She concluded her talk by saying that the Paraclete is the fulfilment of all the prophecies and promises of God, and that we are very fortunate to be living in this era of transformation. She said that we have to take advantage of this unique opportunity, and not waste our precious time in trivial pursuits. She said that we have to seek for the Paraclete with all our sincerity and earnestness, and that we will surely find her within ourselves.

It claims to be a universal and scientific method of self-realization, but it also relies on a subtle system of chakras, nadis, and kundalini that is derived from Hinduism. It also emphasizes the role of Shri Mataji as the incarnation of the Divine Mother and the savior of humanity. If it were to admit that her message of the Resurrection, which is a Christian concept, was as good as or better than its subtle system Karma Kanda, which is a Hindu concept, it would lose its identity and legitimacy, and its followers would abandon it."

Bing August 27, 2023: "The quote challenges the conventional wisdom that Self-realization is a privilege reserved for a few elite individuals who have access to special knowledge or techniques. It also questions the validity and authenticity of Sahaja Yoga as a path to enlightenment. It suggests that Self-realization is a universal and natural phenomenon that can be experienced by anyone who has a sincere desire and a pure heart. It also implies that Self-realization is not something that can be given or received by others, but something that has to be discovered and realized by oneself."

It is the plan that has led to wars, conflicts, oppression, and suffering. It is the plan that has failed to bring peace, harmony, justice, and love to humanity. Plan 'B' is the evolution of divine Neanderthals five hundred thousand prior. It is the plan of the female Goddess, the Mother of All, the Source of All That Is. It is the plan of the primordial religions of shamanism, animism, and paganism. It is the plan of inclusivism, pluralism, mysticism, and non-violence. It is the plan that has nurtured life, diversity, creativity, and joy. It is the plan that has succeeded in bringing balance, harmony, wisdom, and love to humanity."
