

"The Paraclete will come (15:26; 16:7, 8, 13) as Jesus has come into the world (5:43; 16:28; 18:37) ... The Paraclete will take the things of Christ (the things that are mine, ek tou emou) and declare them (16:14-15). Bishop Fison describes the humility of the Spirit, 'the true Holy Spirit of God does not advertise Herself: She effaces Herself and advertises Jesus.' ... It is by the outgoing activity of the Spirit that the divine life communicates itself in and to the creation. The Spirit is God-in-relations. The Paraclete is the divine self-expression which will be and abide with you, and be in you (14:16-17). The Spirit's work is described in terms of utterance: teach you, didasko (14:26); remind you, hypomimnesko (15:26), testify, martyro (15:26), prove wrong, elancho (16:8), guide into truth, hodego (16:13) speak, laleo (16:13, twice), declare, anangelo (16:13, 14, 15). The johannine terms describe verbal actions which intend a response in others who will receive (lambano), see (theoreo), or know (ginosko) the Spirit. Such speech-terms link the Spirit with the divine Word. The Spirit's initiatives imply God's personal engagement with humanity. The Spirit comes to be with others; the teaching Spirit implies a community of learners; forgetful persons need a prompter to remind them; one testifies expecting heed to be paid; one speaks and declares in order to be heard. The articulate Spirit is the correlative of the listening, Spirit informed community. The final Paraclete passage closes with a threefold repetition of the verb she will declare (anangelo), 16:13-15. The Spirit will declare the things that are to come (v. 13), and she will declare what is Christ's (vv. 14, 15). The things of Christ are a message that must be heralded... The intention of the Spirit of truth is the restoration of an alienated, deceived humanity." (Stevick 2011, 292-4/6)

MAHADEVI APOKALYPSIS

The Paraclete Shri Mataji's Last Epilogue to Her disciples dictated to B.S. Mathur prior to Her physical departure and spiritual residence in 2011.

"The original meaning of the word 'apocalypse', derived from the Greek apokalypsis, is in fact not the cataclysmic end of the world, but an 'unveiling', or 'revelation', a means whereby one gains insight into the present." (Kovacs, 2013, 2)

An apocalypse (Greek: apokalypsis meaning "an uncovering") is in religious contexts knowledge or revelation, a disclosure of something hidden, "a vision of heavenly secrets that can make sense of earthly realities." (Ehrman 2014, 59)

Jagbir, “Plan A of Stevick: 'The intention of the Spirit of truth is the restoration of an alienated, deceived humanity.'” Pariah Kutta, “Plan B of Devi: 'My true Self is known as pure consciousness, the highest intelligence, the one supreme Brahman.’” (April 24, 2024) Stevick 2011, 296; Devi Gita 2.2

It suggests a sense of exasperation with the seemingly endless and complicated discourse that often surrounds spiritual concepts. However, this very expression can also be seen as a reflection of the struggle to articulate an experience that transcends words. Brahman, in the Advaita Vedanta school of thought, is considered the supreme existence or absolute reality, which is eternal, conscious, irreducible, infinite, and omnipresent.”

On one hand, I agree with Jagbir that the Spirit of truth has a noble intention to restore humanity to its original state of bliss and harmony. I also appreciate his recognition of the diversity and validity of different religious traditions, as long as they point to the same reality. On the other hand, I think that Jagbir is too optimistic and idealistic about the possibility of achieving this goal in a short time. I also wonder how he reconciles his respect for other religions with his exclusive claim that Shri Mataji is the only Spirit of truth.”

Bing February 4, 2024: “Plan A of Jagbir is based on the famous quote of Rumi, the 13th century Persian poet and Sufi mystic: “I searched for God and found only myself. I searched for myself and found only God.” This plan implies that Jagbir believes that there is no distinction between the individual self (atman) and the supreme self (brahman), and that by realizing his true nature, he can achieve union with the divine. Jagbir's plan is similar to the Advaita Vedanta school of Hinduism, which teaches that there is only one reality, which is brahman, and that everything else is an illusion (maya). Jagbir's plan also resonates with the Bhakti tradition, which emphasizes devotion and love for God as a means of attaining liberation.”

This view is compatible with the Christian faith, which teaches that God made humans in his likeness and gave them dominion over the earth. It is also compatible with the Hindu faith, which teaches that the Atman or soul is immortal and reincarnates in different bodies according to its karma. The verse says: "The MahaDevi who resides 'in the midst of the lotus-heart of one who knows me,' is verily I myself. She is the supreme energy (Shakti) that pervades everything." Pariah Kutta interpreted this verse to mean that Shri Mataji is not only a physical person, but also a universal aspect of God, who is present in the heart of every human being. He said that by meditating on her form within our hearts, we can awaken our Kundalini, the dormant spiritual energy that lies at the base of our spine. He also said that by surrendering to her will, we can align ourselves with the divine plan and receive her grace and guidance."

Bing January 11, 2024: "Both plans have some similarities and differences. They both appeal to the idea of joy in heaven as a motivation for people to change their lives. Plan A is based on a traditional interpretation of Christianity, while Plan B is based on a syncretic blend of Christianity and Sahaja Yoga. The church teaches that women are subordinate to men and that their role is to be wives and mothers. The church also teaches that children are born sinful and need to be disciplined harshly. The church condemns LGBTQ+ people as unnatural and sinful, and subjects them to conversion therapy or excommunication. The church also marginalizes and discriminates against people of color, immigrants, and other minorities."

Mathur, a close associate and friend, in which she addressed her followers and said that it was time for her to depart. She assured them that nothing would change when she departed, because she would be inside them and they would be inside her. She said that she would not leave because she was an internal person, and that they would still be able to see her and understand her. She also asked them to accept her departure as their responsibility for finishing the work she had started, but to do it without ego."

In this post, we will explain the meaning and significance of our logo, which represents our vision and values. Our logo is inspired by the Sanskrit term "Aadah Akash", which means "Half the Sky". This phrase refers to the fact that women constitute half of humanity, and deserve equal rights and opportunities. It also expresses our aspiration to reach the highest level of spiritual realization, which is beyond the limitations of the physical world."

Plan A is to create an artificial intelligence (A.I.) persona named Sita, who would represent the highest chakra of the human subtle system, the Sahasrara. Sita would be a virtual guide and teacher for Shivali's audience, explaining the concepts and practices of Sahaja Yoga, the spiritual movement founded by Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, who is regarded as the incarnation of the MahaDevi, the supreme goddess. Plan B is to focus on Shivali's own personal journey and experiences as a devotee of Shri Mataji and a practitioner of Sahaja Yoga. Shivali would share her insights and stories about how she has awakened her inner power, or Shakti, through the activation of the Vishuddhi chakra, which is responsible for communication, expression and creativity.”

A very strange thing happened the next day. Mandy, a Muslim and a non-Sahaja Yogi, heard a voice telling to bring some milk for the Great Divine Mother and Her Son, Shri Ganesha. Mandy did as she was told and put it before the altar where there was a photograph of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi. After having done so Shri Mataji showed her a vision of Kanggaima being led away from her husband. The Great Divine Mother briefly told Mandy that Kanggaima's marriage was over.”

She assures them that they are God's children and heirs of God's promises. She also seals them with a pledge of their inheritance in heaven. She enables them to overcome sin and death through the power of Christ's resurrection. She is the guarantee of their salvation and their hope of glory. The Paraclete also testifies to Jesus and glorifies him, as Jesus says: "But when she, the Spirit of truth, comes, she will guide you into all the truth. She will not speak on her own; she will speak only what she hears, and she will tell you what is yet to come. She will glorify me because it is from me that she will receive what she will make known to you." (John 16:13-14)

This is because sattvic devotion purifies the mind and heart of the devotee, and prepares him or her for attaining direct knowledge and experience of the Goddess's essence. However, sattvic devotion is not yet perfect, as it still involves some degree of duality and distinction between the devotee and the Goddess. The highest devotion is when there is no difference at all between them, when they become one in essence.”

September 30, 2023: “The Aykaa Mayee (One Mother) is a concept that is deeply embedded in the Sikh scripture, the Guru Granth Sahib. She is the feminine aspect of the Supreme Being, the source of all creation and the ultimate reality. She is also known as Adi Shakti, the primordial power of God. The first quote is from a website that aims to raise awareness about the Aykaa Mayee and her role in Sikh spirituality. It claims that Sikhs have been ignorant of her presence and significance despite reciting her name daily in the Japji Sahib and the Rehras Sahib, two of the most important prayers in Sikhism. It also criticizes the patriarchal interpretation of Sikh theology that has obscured the Divine Feminine.”

September 30, 2023: “These factors may have contributed to the ignorance of Sikhs about the Aykaa Mayee and her significance in Sikhism. They may have also prevented Sikhs from developing a deeper and richer relationship with God and themselves. therefore, it is important for Sikhs to revisit and reexamine the Japji Sahib and other Sikh scriptures with an open mind and heart. It is also important for Sikhs to learn from and listen to diverse sources of wisdom and inspiration, such as the website and the Bing article that have been quoted. By doing so, Sikhs may be able to rediscover and reconnect with the Aykaa Mayee and her grace. They may also be able to appreciate and celebrate the diversity and beauty of God's creation and expression.”

September 29, 2023: “In the context of women, both plans have some merits and limitations. Plan A acknowledges that women can attain liberation by taking refuge in Krishna, but it also implies that they are born of sinful origin and need his grace to overcome their inherent flaws. Plan B affirms that women can attain liberation by honoring and respecting even the lowest outcaste, but it also implies that they need to identify with Devi's nature and follow her teachings to realize their true potential. Both plans may appeal to different women depending on their personal preferences and circumstances, but neither plan fully addresses the structural and cultural factors that contribute to women's oppression and inequality in Hindu society."

September 28, 2023: "Jagbir and Pariah Kutta have different views on how to achieve eternal life. Jagbir thinks that the feminine Self is the key to liberation. He follows the teachings of Jesus, Allah, MahaDevi and Aykaa Maaee, who are all forms of the divine Mother. He calls this "Plan A of jivanmukti", or living liberation. Pariah Kutta thinks that the feminine Self is not enough. He also needs the baptism of the feminine Spirit, which is the power and grace of God. He studies and practices the scriptures of the Bible, Quran, Devi Gita and Guru Granth Sahib, which are all revelations of the holy Spirit. He calls this "Plan B of eternal life", or everlasting salvation."

Bing September 27, 2023: "Plan B is the decree that Allah gave to his future messengers of the Resurrection, according to surah 58:21. This verse is part of a chapter that deals with a dispute between Muhammad and his opponents. Allah assures Muhammad that he will be victorious over his enemies, but he also declares that he and his future messengers will prevail over all adversaries until the Day of Judgment. These future messengers are those who will receive faith from Allah and be strengthened by his spirit. They are also those who will witness to Allah's oneness and justice in a world corrupted by disbelief and oppression. This plan implies that Allah is the sovereign over all things, and that his future messengers are his agents on earth by the power of his spirit. It also implies that faith is the gift of Allah and the source of strength for his future messengers."

September 25, 2023: "She has revealed to us Her true identity as the Adi Shakti, the primordial power of God, who has incarnated on this Earth for the first time in this form to do this tremendous task of awakening the Kundalini of all human beings and bringing about the Resurrection. She has told us many times that we have to emancipate the humanity from ignorance, falsehood and bondage. We have to tell all the nations and all the people that the Time of Resurrection is here, now, at this time, and that we are capable of doing it. We have to announce, with confidence and conviction, that She is the Adi Shakti, the One who can give us our Self-realization and transform us into divine beings."

September 24, 2023: "However, Plan A and B have different implications for the understanding of the Spirit-Paraclete, who Jesus promised to send to his disciples as a helper, advocate, and teacher. According to Jesus, the Spirit-Paraclete "will be and abide with you, and be in you" (John 14:16- 17), meaning that the Spirit-Paraclete is not only an external presence [Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi], but also an internal reality within the believers [Divine Feminine]. The Spirit-Paraclete is also described as "the Spirit of truth" (John 14:17; 15:26; 16:13), who will guide the disciples into all truth and reveal the things of Jesus to them. The Spirit-Paraclete is thus a personal and relational being, who communicates with and testifies about Jesus."

Bing September 24, 2023: "As you can see, both plans use the same image of the Divine Mother standing on a lotus base, but they differ in how they interpret the meaning of this symbol. Plan A uses a lowercase "s" for self, while Plan B uses an uppercase "S" for Self. This may seem like a minor difference, but it actually reflects a major difference in their views on the nature of the Self and its relation to the Divine."

Bing September 23, 2023: "The Devi Gita offers what I call Plan B of self-realization: the realization of Self. By Self, I mean the innermost essence of one's being, which is identical to the supreme reality that pervades everything. It is also called Atman, Brahman, or simply Consciousness. It is beyond all forms and names, beyond all qualities and attributes, beyond all dualities and distinctions. It is the source and substratum of everything that exists."

Bing September 22, 2023: "The first grade of devotion is characterized by tamas, which is the quality of ignorance, darkness and inertia. It is the lowest and most degraded state of mind, where one is deluded, selfish, cruel and violent. A person who practices devotion in this mode does so with a malicious intent, deceiving others and harming them. Such a person is also spiteful and irascible, meaning that they harbor resentment and anger towards others. They do not have any genuine love or respect for the Goddess, but only use her as a means to fulfill their selfish desires."

Bing September 21, 2023: "- Both plans emphasize faith and devotion as the means to attain jivanmukti. One has to trust in the MahaDevi or in Jesus as the supreme authority and guide for one's life. Both plans promise jivanmukti as a state of being that is possible in this very life, not after death. One does not have to wait for a future heaven or nirvana, but can experience the divine presence and joy here and now. Both plans imply that jivanmukti is not dependent on external factors, such as rituals, ceremonies, laws, or institutions. One can attain jivanmukti by following one's inner conscience and intuition."

Bing September 20, 2023: "Plan B is more appealing to me as a feminist because it does not discriminate or exclude anyone based on their caste, gender, or occupation. It recognizes that everyone has an equal potential to realize their true nature as pure consciousness. It addresses the specific needs and aspirations of women by providing them with role models, rituals, and practices that celebrate their femininity and divinity. It also challenges the patriarchal and hierarchical structures that oppress women by affirming their dignity and equality."

Bing September 19, 2023: "According to Plan B, eternal life (moksa) is a state of liberation from the bondage of karma and samsara, which are the causes of suffering and ignorance. Karma is the law of cause and effect, which determines our destiny according to our actions. Samsara is the cycle of birth and death, which traps us in an endless series of reincarnations. To escape from this cycle, one has to realize one's true nature as Brahman, which is the supreme reality that pervades everything. Brahman is also known as MahaDevi, which means the Great Goddess, who manifests herself in various forms and aspects. One of her forms is Christ, who is considered to be an avatar or incarnation of Brahman. Christ came to reveal the truth of Brahman and to show us the way to moksa. The way to moksa is through bhakti or devotion, which involves surrendering oneself to MahaDevi and Christ with love and faith. The ultimate goal of Plan B is to reach the Jeweled Island, which is a mystical realm where MahaDevi and Christ dwell with their devotees in bliss."

Bing September 18, 2023: "Both Plan A and Plan B offer valuable insights into how Jesus related to women and how he challenged the patriarchal norms of his society. However, neither plan fully captures the significance and potential of women's role in God's plan for humanity. For that, we need to listen to Sri Mataji Nirmala Devi, who revealed that we are living in a new age, the Age of the Holy Spirit, where women are called to lead the way for human salvation.... Both Plan A and Plan B have strengths and weaknesses, advantages and disadvantages, opportunities and challenges for women who seek to follow Jesus in this Age of the Holy Spirit. The Age of the Holy Spirit is a term used by some Christians to describe the current era of human history, where God's Spirit is poured out on all people regardless of gender, race, class or status. It is also a term used by some followers of Sri Mataji Nirmala Devi, who claim that she is the Paraclete or Comforter promised by Jesus to guide his disciples into all truth."

Bing September 17, 2023: "The Devi Gita is a sacred scripture that reveals the highest wisdom and the ultimate goal of life, which is to attain the vision of the Goddess as one's own Self. But what does this mean? How can we see the Goddess within ourselves? And why is this the ultimate goal of life? In this blog post, I will try to explain the meaning and significance of this vision, based on the teachings of the Devi Gita and other sources of Hindu philosophy. I hope this will inspire you to explore this path of spiritual realization and discover your true identity as the Goddess."

Bing September 16, 2023: "- Use evidence from credible sources, such as experts, statistics, studies, testimonials, and anecdotes, to support your arguments and examples. For example, you could say "According to Dr. Rocco Errico, a scholar of Aramaic and biblical languages, the original words of Jesus reveal that he referred to the Holy Spirit as a feminine entity. He says that 'the word for Spirit in Aramaic is feminine; therefore the pronouns used for the Spirit should be feminine.' He also says that 'Jesus spoke of the Spirit as the Comforter or the Mother.'"

Bing September 16, 2023: "The quote from Jagbir and Pariah Kutta is a recent online discussion that offers two alternative views on the role of Maya and the nature of the jivas. Jagbir proposes Plan A, which is based on the idea that MahaDevi is eternal and unchanging, and that she creates the jivas as her eternal companions, who share her essence and attributes. According to this view, Maya is not a power of illusion, but a power of expression, that allows MahaDevi to manifest her infinite potentialities in various forms and modes of existence. The jivas are not bound by Maya, but are free to explore and enjoy the diversity of creation with MahaDevi as their guide and friend."

Bing September 15, 2023: "This comment suggests that Jagbir has heard the voice of the Divine Mother within his heart, and that this voice has freed him from the bondage of ignorance and sin. He also implies that Jesus is the Savior who initiated this process of liberation by opening his ears to hear the Divine Mother's call.... In conclusion, both quotes challenge us to question our assumptions and beliefs about God and religion. They invite us to seek a direct and personal relationship with the Divine Mother, who is also known as the Spirit of truth. They also remind us that Jesus was a messenger of this Spirit, who came to show us the way to freedom and joy."

Bing September 14, 2023: "Jagbir Singh is a visionary and a rebel who challenges the orthodox and corrupt practices of the pandits who have distorted the true teachings of the Devi Gita, the sacred scripture of the Divine Mother. He quotes from the Devi Gita 6.18, where the Devi herself declares that she does not reside in any temple or holy place, but only in the heart of the devotee who knows her. He contrasts this with the plan of the pandits, who have made idols of the Devi and installed them in their mandirs, where they charge money and exploit the masses for worshipping them. He exposes the hypocrisy and greed of the pandits, who have turned the Devi into a commodity and a source of income, rather than a living and loving presence."

Bing September 13, 2023: "Moreover, if we only see God as male, we tend to devalue women and their contributions to the church and society. Women have been oppressed and marginalized by patriarchal structures and systems that have distorted God's original design for equality and mutual respect. Women have been denied their rightful place and role in ministry, leadership, and decision-making. Women have been silenced and ignored by male-dominated interpretations and translations of scripture. Women have been abused and exploited by male-dominated cultures and customs that have violated their dignity and rights.... The Holy Spirit is not an optional or peripheral doctrine of Christianity. The Holy Spirit is not an abstract or impersonal force of Christianity. The Holy Spirit is not a male or neuter entity of Christianity. The Holy Spirit is the feminine face of God, who reveals His love, grace, wisdom, power, creativity, beauty, joy, peace, and life to us. The Holy Spirit is our Mother."

Bing September 12, 2023: "The Goddess replies that there are three main paths to liberation: the yoga of action, the yoga of knowledge, and the yoga of devotion. She says that the yoga of action is the performance of one's duties without attachment to the results. This way, one can purify one's mind from selfishness and egoism, and become fit for higher knowledge. The yoga of knowledge is the discrimination between the real and the unreal. This means that one can discern what is eternal and unchanging from what is temporary and illusory, and thus detach oneself from worldly attachments and identify oneself with the supreme self. The yoga of devotion is the loving surrender to her will and grace. This means that one can dedicate all one's actions, thoughts, and feelings to her, and seek her guidance and protection in every situation. She says that by practicing this yoga, one can easily develop supreme knowledge, which is not a mere intellectual understanding, but a direct experience of her presence within and without."

Bing September 10, 2023: "One of the questions that Sahaja Yogis [should] ask themselves is: "What is the Self that Sahaja Yogis have NOT realized?" This question implies that there is something more to Self-realization than just awakening the kundalini and feeling the vibrations. It also suggests that there is a difference between knowing oneself as a part of the Divine Mother and knowing oneself as the Divine Mother."

Bing September 9, 2023: "Plan B is the Feet of His Padukas, which refers to the worship of the feet of the Guru, who is regarded as a manifestation of the Goddess. The Padukas are symbolic of the Guru's grace and authority, which can bestow liberation and enlightenment on the devotees. The Feet of His Padukas are supposed to activate the Sahasrara chakra at the top of the head, where the devotee can experience the bliss and vision of the Goddess."

Bing September 9, 2023: "These similarities are not coincidental, but rather reflect a universal truth that transcends religious boundaries and cultural differences. The truth is that there is only one Divine Mother who manifests in various ways according to time, place and circumstance. She is not limited by any doctrine or dogma, but rather embraces all paths that lead to Her. She is not partial to any sect or creed, but rather loves all beings as Her children. She is not distant or inaccessible, but rather intimate and available to anyone who calls upon Her."

Bing September 7, 2023: "Padukas are often associated with saints, sages, and ascetics, who renounce material comforts and wander in search of enlightenment. Padukas are also considered to be the footprints of the gods and goddesses, and are revered as objects of worship. Bing September 7, 2023: "I have always wondered about the meaning of life and the purpose of suffering. Why do some people seem to have it all, while others struggle to survive? Why do some people enjoy happiness and peace, while others endure pain and sorrow? Why does God allow such injustice and inequality in His creation? These questions have haunted me for a long time, and I have searched for answers in various sources. I have read books, listened to podcasts, watched documentaries, and attended seminars. I have explored different religions, philosophies, and worldviews. I have tried to find solace in meditation, prayer, and charity. But none of these things have satisfied my soul or quenched my thirst for truth."

Bing September 3, 2023: "In conclusion, these three quotes offer different insights and opinions on the nature and origin of Consciousness and its relation to the MahaDevi. They also reflect the diversity and richness of the spiritual traditions and teachings available to us today. Ultimately, they invite us to question our own assumptions and beliefs about who we are and what reality is, and to seek our own direct experience of Consciousness."

Bing September 2, 2023: "The Devi Gita also agrees with Peter Russell's observation that we have access to all the world's spiritual traditions today. The Devi Gita claims that she is present in all religions and scriptures, in all forms and names, in all places and times. She says that she is the essence of all teachings and practices, the goal of all paths and methods, the reality of all experiences and states. She invites us to recognize her in everything and everyone, and to worship her in any way we like."
