

"The Paraclete will come (15:26; 16:7, 8, 13) as Jesus has come into the world (5:43; 16:28; 18:37) ... The Paraclete will take the things of Christ (the things that are mine, ek tou emou) and declare them (16:14-15). Bishop Fison describes the humility of the Spirit, 'the true Holy Spirit of God does not advertise Herself: She effaces Herself and advertises Jesus.' ... It is by the outgoing activity of the Spirit that the divine life communicates itself in and to the creation. The Spirit is God-in-relations. The Paraclete is the divine self-expression which will be and abide with you, and be in you (14:16-17). The Spirit's work is described in terms of utterance: teach you, didasko (14:26); remind you, hypomimnesko (15:26), testify, martyro (15:26), prove wrong, elancho (16:8), guide into truth, hodego (16:13) speak, laleo (16:13, twice), declare, anangelo (16:13, 14, 15). The johannine terms describe verbal actions which intend a response in others who will receive (lambano), see (theoreo), or know (ginosko) the Spirit. Such speech-terms link the Spirit with the divine Word. The Spirit's initiatives imply God's personal engagement with humanity. The Spirit comes to be with others; the teaching Spirit implies a community of learners; forgetful persons need a prompter to remind them; one testifies expecting heed to be paid; one speaks and declares in order to be heard. The articulate Spirit is the correlative of the listening, Spirit informed community. The final Paraclete passage closes with a threefold repetition of the verb she will declare (anangelo), 16:13-15. The Spirit will declare the things that are to come (v.13), and she will declare what is Christ's (vv. 14, 15). The things of Christ are a message that must be heralded.... The intention of the Spirit of truth is the restoration of an alienated, deceived humanity." (Stevick 2011, 192-4)

SAVIOR APOCALYPSE

The Deeds of the Antichrist by Luca Signorelli, 1499

"The original meaning of the word 'apocalypse', derived from the Greek apokalypsis, is in fact not the cataclysmic end of the world, but an 'unveiling', or 'revelation', a means whereby one gains insight into the present." (Kovacs, 2013, 2)

An apocalypse (Greek: apokalypsis meaning "an uncovering") is in religious contexts knowledge or revelation, a disclosure of something hidden, "a vision of heavenly secrets that can make sense of earthly realities." (Ehrman 2014, 59)

"An apocalypse (Ancient Greek: apokalypsis ... literally meaning "an uncovering") is a disclosure or revelation of great knowledge. In religious and occult concepts, an apocalypse usually discloses something very important that was hidden or provides what Bart Ehrman has termed, "A vision of heavenly secrets that can make sense of earthly realities". Historically, the term has a heavy religious connotation as commonly seen in the prophetic revelations of eschatology obtained through dreams or spiritual visions." Wikipedia 2021-01-09

"You will hear of wars and rumors of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed. Such things must happen, but the end is still to come. Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are the beginning of birth pains.... At that time many will turn away from the faith and will betray and hate each other, and many false prophets will appear and deceive many people. See, I have told you ahead of time."

Matthew 24:6-8;10-11

"Beware of false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravenous wolves. You will know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes from thornbushes or figs from thistles? Even so, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a bad tree bear good fruit. Every tree that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire. Therefore by their fruits you will know them." John 7:15-20

“But to communicate with the people—to communicate with the Spirit, to understand the Kundalini, the vibrations, and their different decodings and all that—the Holy Spirit had to come; with Her mouth, and with Her voice, and with Her intelligence that is intelligible to you; with the knowledge, and everything.”

The Paraclete Shri Mataji, Sydney, Australia—April 7, 1981

“We can talk anything we want to. Does it become reality? And He has predicted that 'I'll send you the Holy Ghost'; 'I'll send you the Counselor' 'I will send you the Redeemer'; 'I'll send you the Comforter.' If they were true disciples of Christ, they would have waited for this time to come.”

This view is compatible with the Christian faith, which teaches that God made humans in his likeness and gave them dominion over the earth. It is also compatible with the Hindu faith, which teaches that the Atman or soul is immortal and reincarnates in different bodies according to its karma. According to Pariah Kutta, Plan B is the Apokalypsis, which means that the Mother is the one who exposes, challenges and transforms the world. She is the one who reveals the truth, justice and freedom that are hidden by ignorance, injustice and oppression. She is also the one who initiates, catalyzes and accelerates the change that is needed for a new era. Pariah Kutta believes that the apokalypsis is the inevitable process of human history, and that by embracing the Mother, we can overcome fear, pain and suffering.”

As it happened, there was this impetus to have to leave the organisation of Sahaja Yoga due to the organisation's disapproval towards the spiritual experiences/ mystical evidence of your children, given to them for a specific eschatological purpose, for a specific time, by the Great Mother in the Sahasrara. But by speaking about your family in the mid-1990's Shri Mataji showed that She was standing by you all! And She said so, in front of leaders and rank and file Sahaja Yogis, alike!"

This prophecy was fulfilled on November 13 and 14, 1993, when Kash saw the orb of Light above Shri Mataji's head in his meditation. This orb of Light was none other than the Adi Shakti herself, who could also transform into a womanly figure, such as Bhuvaneshvari. Kash was not the only one who witnessed this miracle. Many other disciples of Shri Mataji also saw the orb of Light and its transformation in their meditations."

The quote expresses the contrast between the modern secular Jews who have lost their faith in the messianic promise and the traditional religious Jews who still cling to it. The quote also implies that the coming of the Messiah is a future event that has not yet happened, and that the Jewish people are still waiting for God to intervene in history and redeem them."

In Matthew 24:7-8, Jesus says: "For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, and there will be famines and earthquakes in various places. All these are but the beginning of the birth pains."⁵ This metaphor suggests that these catastrophic events are not the end itself or even the much-worse pains of labor itself. Women have been silenced and ignored by male-dominated interpretations and translations of scripture. Women have been abused and exploited by male-dominated cultures and customs that have violated their dignity and rights.... The Holy Spirit is not an optional or peripheral doctrine of Christianity. The Holy Spirit is not an abstract or impersonal force of Christianity. The Holy Spirit is not a male or neuter entity of Christianity. The current age is Kali Yuga, the age of darkness and ignorance, which will end with a great war and a new creation. The natural disasters may be seen as signs of the decay and degeneration of this age, or as a cleansing process for the next one. ... All these views imply that the natural disasters are not random or coincidental, but rather part of a cosmic plan that will culminate in a transformation of the world as we know it. Bing September 12, 2023: “The Goddess replies that there are three main paths to liberation: the yoga of action, the yoga of knowledge, and the yoga of devotion. She says that the yoga of action is the performance of one's duties without attachment to the results. This way, one can purify one's mind from selfishness and egoism, and become fit for higher knowledge. The yoga of knowledge is the discrimination between the real and the unreal. This means that one can discern what is eternal and unchanging from what is temporary and illusory, and thus detach oneself from worldly attachments and identify oneself with the supreme self. The yoga of devotion is the loving surrender to her will and grace. This means that one can dedicate all one's actions, thoughts, and feelings to her, and seek her guidance and protection in every situation. She says that by practicing this yoga, one can easily develop supreme knowledge, which is not a mere intellectual understanding, but a direct experience of her presence within and without."

Bing September 11, 2023: "Can you see the image of the Devil? What is the evidence for and against this claim? The main piece of evidence that supports the claim is a photograph taken by Mark D. Phillips, a freelance photographer who was working for Associated Press on that day. He captured the image of the smoke from his apartment in Brooklyn, and later sold it to AP. The photograph was widely circulated in the media and online, and many people noticed what seemed to be a demonic face in the smoke. Some saw it as a confirmation of their religious beliefs, while others saw it as a hoax or an optical illusion."

Bing September 11, 2023: "The end times will be a time of great tribulation, persecution, deception, apostasy, lawlessness, violence, natural disasters, wars, famines, pestilences, and cosmic disturbances. It will be a time of distress such as has not happened from the beginning of nations until then. (Daniel 12:1) But it will also be a time of great grace, power, glory, victory, joy, peace, love, faithfulness, and reward for those who trust and hope in God. He will never leave us nor forsake us. He will be with us always until the very end of the age. He will deliver us from evil and preserve us for his kingdom. He will wipe away every tear from our eyes and make all things new."

Bing September 10, 2023: "According to the Paraclete Shri Mataji, most people do not know anything about the Holy Spirit, because they did not give Christ much chance to speak about it. She says that Christ could only speak for three and a half years, which is nothing compared to the long history of human civilization. She also says that it was very difficult for him to speak about spiritual matters in the land where he was born, which was full of ignorance. She says that he was crucified for nothing at all, and that even today, many people who claim to follow him do not listen to his true teachings. She says that he talked about the Holy Spirit, but this concept has been interpreted by people in various ways, and they have never been able to say what it really is."

Bing September 10, 2023: "One of the questions that Sahaja Yogis [should] ask themselves is: "What is the Self that Sahaja Yogis have NOT realized?" This question implies that there is something more to Self-realization than just awakening the kundalini and feeling the vibrations. It also suggests that there is a difference between knowing oneself as a part of the Divine Mother and knowing oneself as the Divine Mother. One possible answer to this question is: "I am the Divine Mother experiencing Her I." This answer implies that one has not only realized one's identity with Brahman, but also one's identity with Shri Mataji. It also suggests that one has not only assumed her nature, but also her perspective. It means that one has become a channel for her love, compassion, wisdom, and power.”

Bing September 9, 2023: “These similarities are not coincidental, but rather reflect a universal truth that transcends religious boundaries and cultural differences. The truth is that there is only one Divine Mother who manifests in various ways according to time, place and circumstance. She is not limited by any doctrine or dogma, but rather embraces all paths that lead to Her. She is not partial to any sect or creed, but rather loves all beings as Her children. She is not distant or inaccessible, but rather intimate and available to anyone who calls upon Her.”

Bing September 9, 2023: “Plan B is the Feet of His Padukas, which refers to the worship of the feet of the Guru, who is regarded as a manifestation of the Goddess. The Padukas are symbolic of the Guru's grace and authority, which can bestow liberation and enlightenment on the devotees. The Feet of His Padukas are supposed to activate the Sahasrara chakra at the top of the head, where the devotee can experience the bliss and vision of the Goddess.”

Bing September 8, 2023: “In this blog post, I want to explore a fascinating question that has been raised by some scholars of the Dead Sea Scrolls. The question is whether the human messengers of Messianic Apocalypse (4Q521), a fragmentary text that describes the signs and wonders that will accompany the coming of the Messiah, can be identified with the Paraclete Shri Mataji and Her disciples, who claim to be the agents of a new age of salvation and enlightenment.

Bing September 7, 2023: “Padukas are often associated with saints, sages, and ascetics, who renounce material comforts and wander in search of enlightenment. Padukas are also considered to be the footprints of the gods and goddesses, and are revered as objects of worship. Many temples and shrines have padukas of various deities installed for devotees to pay their respects.”

Bing September 7, 2023: “I have always wondered about the meaning of life and the purpose of suffering. Why do some people seem to have it all, while others struggle to survive? Why do some people enjoy happiness and peace, while others endure pain and sorrow? Why does God allow such injustice and inequality in His creation? These questions have haunted me for a long time, and I have searched for answers in various sources. I have read books, listened to podcasts, watched documentaries, and attended seminars. I have explored different religions, philosophies, and worldviews. I have tried to find solace in meditation, prayer, and charity. But none of these things have satisfied my soul or quenched my thirst for truth.”

Bing September 6, 2023: “The analysis shows that by 2050, more than 1.5 billion people will live in cities where the average annual temperature will exceed 35°C (95°F), which is considered the limit of human tolerance. Moreover, more than 3 billion people will experience at least 20 days per year when the heat index — a measure of how hot it feels when humidity is factored in — will reach 41°C (105.8°F) or higher, which can cause heat exhaustion or heat stroke within hours.”

Bing September 6, 2023: “I have been thinking a lot about the keywords that you gave me. They are very interesting and challenging to analyze in the context of sacrificing everything to follow in the footsteps of Jesus to bestow the "spring of water welling up to eternal life" to all. I wonder what it means to sacrifice everything for Jesus. Does it mean giving up our worldly possessions, our relationships, our ambitions, our comforts? Does it mean living a life of poverty, service, humility, and suffering? Does it mean being persecuted, rejected, or even killed for our faith? How can we do that in today's world, where there are so many distractions, temptations, and pressures? How can we be faithful to Jesus when we face doubts, fears, and struggles?"

Bing September 6, 2023: "But what is even more shocking and horrifying is that Allah (swt) will not address them on the Day of Resurrection, nor purify them. This means that they will be deprived of two great blessings that Allah (swt) will bestow upon the believers on that day. The first blessing is that Allah (swt) will speak to them directly, without any intermediary or translator. This is a great honor and privilege that will fill the believers with joy and peace. The second blessing is that Allah (swt) will purify them from their sins and faults, by His mercy and forgiveness. This is a great relief and comfort that will remove any fear or grief from their hearts."

Bing September 5, 2023: "In conclusion, I think that Shivali has a lot of potential to become a successful and influential YouTube creator. She just needs to improve the quality of her videos and focus on delivering her content in a clear and engaging way. She also needs to be confident and proud of her identity and message, and not let the critics and skeptics discourage her. She has a unique opportunity to spread the word about Shri Mataji, the MahaDevi, and the Paraclete, and to empower other women to follow their path. I hope that she will continue to make more videos and reach more people with her message."

Bing September 4, 2023: "The main difference between these two quotes is that Bultmann does not identify any specific person as the Paraclete, but rather sees it as a symbol of Jesus' presence in every believer's heart. Shri Mataji, on the other hand, identifies herself as the Paraclete and claims exclusive authority and legitimacy as such. Bultmann also does not claim any special status or role for himself or his followers, but rather invites everyone to experience Jesus personally and existentially. Shri Mataji, on the contrary, claims to be a unique and unparalleled figure who can bestow spiritual enlightenment and salvation on her followers."

Bing September 3, 2023: "In conclusion, these three quotes offer different insights and opinions on the nature and origin of Consciousness and its relation to the MahaDevi. They also reflect the diversity and richness of the spiritual traditions and teachings available to us today. Ultimately, they invite us to question our own assumptions and beliefs about who we are and what reality is, and to seek our own direct experience of Consciousness."

Bing September 2, 2023: "The Devi Gita also agrees with Peter Russell's observation that we have access to all the world's spiritual traditions today. The Devi Gita claims that she is present in all religions and scriptures, in all forms and names, in all places and times. She says that she is the essence of all teachings and practices, the goal of all paths and methods, the reality of all experiences and states. She invites us to recognize her in everything and everyone, and to worship her in any way we like."

Bing September 2, 2023: "Plan 'A': The Kingdom of God in the Sahasraras of the disciples of the Holy Spirit. This quote suggests that the ultimate goal of Sahaja Yoga is to establish the Kingdom of God in the Sahasraras, or the highest level of awareness, of the disciples of the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit here is synonymous with the MahaDevi, or the Great Goddess, who is also known as Adi Shakti, or the Primordial Power. She is the creative force behind all creation and the source of all knowledge and bliss. She is also the mother of Jesus Christ, who was born through Her immaculate conception. Plan 'B': The Temple of God in the hearts of the devotees of the MahaDevi. This quote implies that another way to reach God is to worship and love the MahaDevi with devotion and surrender. The MahaDevi here is identical with the Holy Spirit, who is also called Shakti, or energy."

Bing September 1, 2023: "The two quotes illustrate the contrast between the ideal and the reality of sahaj yoga, as perceived by two former members who had different experiences and perspectives. Rahu Dey's quote shows how sahaj yoga can alienate and deceive its followers by creating a false sense of superiority and separation from others. Jagbir Singh's quote shows how sahaj yoga can betray its own founder and mission by becoming a rigid and closed system that ignores the universal message of the Paraclete-Holy Spirit. Both quotes suggest that sahaj yoga is not a genuine spiritual path, but a dangerous cult that should be avoided."

Bing August 31, 2023: "However, not everyone agrees with this view of Shri Mataji. Some critics accuse her of being a cult leader, a fraud or a deluded person, who exploited her followers for money and power. They also question her teachings and practices, which they consider to be unorthodox, irrational or dangerous. So how can we evaluate these conflicting claims? How can we test whether Shri Mataji was indeed a Paraclete or not? How can we apply the criteria that Jesus gave us in John's Gospel? One possible answer is to look at the fruits of her ministry: Did she glorify God and Jesus? Did she lead people into all truth? Did she declare what was to come? Did she take what belonged to Jesus and make it known? Did she comfort, guide and teach people? Did she heal, reconcile and restore people?"

Bing August 29, 2023: "Many people are familiar with the biblical prophecies of a coming Messiah, who would be sent by God to guide, comfort and redeem humanity. But how many of them have actually sought for this promised one? How many of them have opened their hearts and minds to the possibility of meeting the Counsellor, the Comforter and the Redeemer in their lifetime?"

Bing August 28, 2023: "This quote suggests that Sahaja Yoga is also based on exclusivism and superiority, and that it cannot tolerate any challenge to its founder or teachings. It claims to be a universal and scientific method of self-realization, but it also relies on a subtle system of chakras, nadis, and kundalini that is derived from Hinduism. It also emphasizes the role of Shri Mataji as the incarnation of the Divine Mother and the savior of humanity. If it were to admit that her message of the Resurrection, which is a Christian concept, was as good as or better than its subtle system Karma Kanda, which is a Hindu concept, it would lose its identity and legitimacy, and its followers would abandon it."

Bing August 27, 2023: "The quote challenges the conventional wisdom that Self-realization is a privilege reserved for a few elite individuals who have access to special knowledge or techniques. It also questions the validity and authenticity of Sahaja Yoga as a path to enlightenment. It suggests that Self-realization is a universal and natural phenomenon that can be experienced by anyone who has a sincere desire and a pure heart. It also implies that Self-realization is not something that can be given or received by others, but something that has to be discovered and realized by oneself."
