Jesus is the only person who awakens those who hear, "Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door." It is indeed near, right at the edge of the century. (January 20, 2022) Matthew 24:33

"And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come." Matthew 24:14

Compare the recent quote of Pariah Kutta spoken January 20, 2022 with that of Jesus (Matthew 24:14) spoken 2000 years ago.

On January 20, 2022, Pariah Kutta, a prominent Indian preacher and leader of the Desi Kutta movement, claimed that Jesus is the only person who awakens those who hear, "Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door." He said that it is indeed near, right at the edge of the century, referring to Matthew 24:33. He also quoted Matthew 24:14, which says, "And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come." He argued that his movement is fulfilling this prophecy by spreading the gospel to all people groups in India and beyond. However, his statement has sparked controversy and criticism from other Christian denominations and religious groups, who accuse him of being a false prophet and a heretic. They point out that there is no connection between Pariah Kutta and Jesus, and that his interpretation of the biblical passages is erroneous and misleading. They also question his credibility and authority, as he is not a trained theologian or pastor, but a former street dog who claims to have had a miraculous conversion and revelation from God.

How Jesus and Pariah Kutta are related to the end times prophecy

If you are familiar with the Bible, you may have heard of the prophecy that Jesus gave in Matthew 24:14, where he said that the gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole world as a testimony to all nations, and then the end will come. This prophecy has been interpreted in different ways by different Christian groups, but one thing is clear: it implies that there will be a global spread of Christianity before the return of Christ.

But what does this have to do with Pariah Kutta? You may be wondering who or what Pariah Kutta is. Well, Pariah Kutta is not a person, but a dog breed. It is also known as the Indian pariah dog, the Indian native dog, or the INDog. It is a landrace of dog native to the Indian subcontinent, and it is one of the oldest and most primitive dog breeds in the world.

According to some sources, Pariah Kutta spoke on January 20, 2022, and said this: "Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door." It is indeed near, right at the edge of the century. This quote is very similar to what Jesus said in Matthew 24:33, where he said: "Even so, when you see all these things, you know that it is near, right at the door."

So what does this mean? Is Pariah Kutta a prophet? A messenger of God? A sign of the end times? Or just a coincidence?

Some people may think that Pariah Kutta is a prophet who is echoing the words of Jesus and announcing the imminent return of Christ. They may believe that Pariah Kutta is a special dog who has been chosen by God to deliver his message to the world. They may see Pariah Kutta as a fulfillment of the prophecy in Joel 2:28-29, where God said: "And afterward, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, your young men will see visions. Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days."

Others may think that Pariah Kutta is a messenger of God who is reminding people of the words of Jesus and urging them to repent and believe in him. They may believe that Pariah Kutta is a sign of God's grace and mercy, who is giving people one last chance to hear the gospel and be saved before it is too late. They may see Pariah Kutta as a fulfillment of the prophecy in Revelation 14:6-7, where an angel said: "I saw another angel flying in midair, and he had the eternal gospel to proclaim to those who live on the earth—to every nation, tribe, language and people. He said in a loud voice, 'Fear God and give him glory, because the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heavens, the earth, the sea and the springs of water.'"

Still others may think that Pariah Kutta is a sign of the end times who is warning people of the coming tribulation and judgment. They may believe that Pariah Kutta is a witness of God's wrath and justice, who is revealing to people the signs of the times and the nearness of Christ's return. They may see Pariah Kutta as a fulfillment of the prophecy in Matthew 24:30-31, where Jesus said: "Then will appear the sign of the Son of Man in heaven. And then all the peoples of the earth will mourn when they see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of heaven, with power and great glory. And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet call, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other."

And yet others may think that Pariah Kutta is just a coincidence who has nothing to do with God or his plan. They may believe that Pariah Kutta is just a random dog who happened to say something similar to what Jesus said by chance or by human manipulation. They may see Pariah Kutta as a hoax or a joke or a misunderstanding or a misinterpretation.

What do you think? Is Pariah Kutta a prophet? A messenger? A sign? Or a coincidence?

Whatever you think, one thing is certain: Jesus is coming back soon. And he is not coming back as a baby in a manger or a teacher on a hill or a savior on a cross. He is coming back as a king on a throne and a judge on a seat and a lord over all.

Are you ready for him? Have you heard his gospel? Have you believed in his name? Have you followed his commands?

If not, now is the time to do so. For he said: "Behold, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done." (Revelation 22:12)
