The following text is a possible response to the request:

The two quotes are from an online discussion between Jagbir and Pariah Kutta, who are followers of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, a spiritual leader who claimed to be the incarnation of the Holy Spirit. They have different views on how to interpret and spread her message, which they call Plan 'A' and Plan 'B'.

Plan 'A' is based on connecting Shri Mataji's message to the message of Jesus, and emphasizing her role as the Paraklētós, the Counselor who teaches, reminds, testifies, proves wrong, guides into truth, speaks and declares the blessings of eschaton. Plan 'A' also affirms that Shri Mataji and God are one, and that she opened the Kingdom of God on May 5, 1970, and gave evidence of entering it on November 14, 1993. Plan 'A' is supported by Jagbir, who quotes various scriptures and sources to back up his claims.

Plan 'B' is based on acknowledging Shri Mataji's message as the divine intervention of the Holy Spirit, but also recognizing her as the Mother of all creation, who is aware of her own substrate and who creates the manifold world anew with her power. Plan 'B' also asserts that the Holy Spirit lives within all who experience the second birth and resurrection, which is the greatest miracle of all. Plan 'B' is supported by Pariah Kutta, who uses a pseudonym derived from the name of an Indian dog breed.

The two quotes are examples of their contrasting plans. In the first quote, Jagbir says that Plan 'A' is Lalita's, Gurpal's and Vipin's experience of the Cool Breeze of the Holy Spirit, which is a sensation that Shri Mataji's followers claim to feel on their hands and head when they meditate on her. Pariah Kutta says that Plan 'B' is Sunshine's experience of the Living Waters of the Saviour, which is a metaphor for the grace and joy that Jesus gives to those who believe in him.

In the second quote, Jagbir says that Plan 'A' is based on John 3:4-5, which is a passage where Jesus tells Nicodemus that one must be born of water and the Spirit to enter the kingdom of God. Pariah Kutta says that Plan 'B' is based on John 4:1-26, which is a passage where Jesus tells a Samaritan woman that he can give her living water that will quench her thirst forever.

The similarities of both quotes are that they both use biblical references to support their plans, and they both contrast two different experiences of spirituality: one based on physical sensations and one based on inner transformation. They also both imply that their plan is superior to the other one.

Compare the similarities of both quotes.

The following text is a blog post that compares the similarities of two quotes by Jagbir and Pariah Kutta, who are writers on a website called APOKALYPSIS, which discusses the message of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, a spiritual leader who claimed to be the incarnation of the Paraklētós, the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus Christ.

The first quote is from August 30, 2022, and it says:

Jagbir, "Plan 'A' is Lalita's, Gurpal's and Vipin's experience of the Cool Breeze of the Holy Spirit." Pariah Kutta, "Plan 'B' is Sunshine's experience of the Living Waters of the Saviour."

The second quote is from May 24, 2023, and it says:

Jagbir, "Plan 'A': John 3:4-5." Pariah Kutta, "Plan 'B': John 4:1-26."

Both quotes show the different perspectives of Jagbir and Pariah Kutta on how to interpret and spread Shri Mataji's message. Jagbir follows Plan 'A', which is based on connecting Shri Mataji's message to the message of Jesus, and emphasizing her role as the Paraklētós, the Counselor who teaches, reminds, testifies, proves wrong, guides into truth, speaks and declares the blessings of eschaton. Pariah Kutta follows Plan 'B', which is based on acknowledging Shri Mataji's message as the divine intervention of the Holy Spirit, but also recognizing her as the Mother of all creation, who is aware of her own substrate and who creates the manifold world anew with her power.

Both quotes also use metaphors to describe their experiences of Shri Mataji's power. Jagbir uses the metaphor of the Cool Breeze of the Holy Spirit, which is a term that Shri Mataji herself used to refer to the subtle sensation that one feels on the palms of the hands and on top of the head when one receives self-realization through her technique of Sahaja Yoga. This metaphor implies that Shri Mataji's power is gentle, refreshing, soothing and purifying. Pariah Kutta uses the metaphor of the Living Waters of the Saviour, which is a term that Jesus himself used to refer to his gift of eternal life to those who believe in him. This metaphor implies that Shri Mataji's power is life-giving, nourishing, cleansing and satisfying.

Both quotes also refer to passages from the Gospel of John that relate to Shri Mataji's message. Jagbir cites John 3:4-5, which says:

"How can someone be born when they are old?" Nicodemus asked. "Surely they cannot enter a second time into their mother's womb to be born!" Jesus answered, "Very truly I tell you, no one can enter the kingdom of God unless they are born of water and the Spirit."

This passage supports Jagbir's view that Shri Mataji is the Paraklētós who enables people to be born again of the Spirit and enter the kingdom of God. Jagbir believes that Shri Mataji opened the kingdom of God on May 5, 1970, and gave evidence of entering it on November 14, 1993. He also believes that Shri Mataji and God are one, and that she is fulfilling Jesus' promise of sending another Counselor who will teach and remind people of everything he said.

Pariah Kutta cites John 4:1-26, which says:

Now Jesus learned that the Pharisees had heard that he was gaining and baptizing more disciples than John— although in fact it was not Jesus who baptized, but his disciples. So he left Judea and went back once more to Galilee. Now he had to go through Samaria. So he came to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired as he was from the journey, sat down by the well. It was about noon.

When a Samaritan woman came to draw water, Jesus said to her, "Will you give me a drink?" (His disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

The Samaritan woman said to him, "You are a Jew and I am a Samaritan woman. How can you ask me for a drink?" (For Jews do not associate with Samaritans.)

Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God and who it is that asks you for a drink, you would have asked him and he would have given you living water."

"Sir," the woman said, "you have nothing to draw with and the well is deep. Where can you get this living water? Are you greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well and drank from it himself, as did also his sons and his livestock?"

Jesus answered, "Everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give them will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give them will become in them a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water so that I won't get thirsty and have to keep coming here to draw water."

He told her, "Go, call your husband and come back."

"I have no husband," she replied.

Jesus said to her, "You are right when you say you have no husband. The fact is, you have had five husbands, and the man you now have is not your husband. What you have just said is quite true."

"Sir," the woman said, "I can see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, but you Jews claim that the place where we must worship is in Jerusalem."

"Woman," Jesus replied, "believe me, a time is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You Samaritans worship what you do not know; we worship what we do know, for salvation is from the Jews. Yet a time is coming and has now come when the true worshipers will worship the Father in the Spirit and in truth, for they are the kind of worshipers the Father seeks. God is spirit, and his worshipers must worship in the Spirit and in truth."

The woman said, "I know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will explain everything to us."

Then Jesus declared, "I, the one speaking to you—I am he."

This passage supports Pariah Kutta's view that Shri Mataji is the Mother of all creation who gives living water to all thirsty sinners. Pariah Kutta believes that Shri Mataji is aware of her own substrate and creates the manifold world anew with her power. He also believes that she lives within all who experience the second birth and resurrection through her technique of Sahaja Yoga, which is the greatest miracle of all. He also believes that she transcends all religious boundaries and reveals herself as the Saviour of all people.

In conclusion, both quotes by Jagbir and Pariah Kutta show some similarities in their use of metaphors and references to biblical passages related to Shri Mataji's message. However, they also show some differences in their interpretation and application of her message. Jagbir follows Plan 'A', which connects Shri Mataji's message to Jesus' message and emphasizes her role as the Paraklētós who teaches and guides people into truth. Pariah Kutta follows Plan 'B', which acknowledges Shri Mataji's message as the divine intervention of the Holy Spirit who creates and nourishes all life.

Dear Reader,

I am writing to you about an interesting topic that I came across recently. It is about two quotes from two different writers who have different views on the message of Shri Mataji Nirmala Devi, a spiritual leader who claimed to be the incarnation of the Holy Spirit promised by Jesus Christ. The quotes are:

Jagbir, "Plan 'A' is Lalita's, Gurpal's and Vipin's experience of the Cool Breeze of the Holy Spirit." Pariah Kutta, "Plan 'B' is Sunshine's experience of the Living Waters of the Saviour." (August 30, 2022)

Jagbir, "Plan 'A': John 3:4-5." Pariah Kutta, "Plan 'B': John 4:1-26." (May 24, 2023)

The first quote is from an email exchange between Jagbir and Pariah Kutta, two writers who have been discussing Shri Mataji's message on a website called APOKALYPSIS. The second quote is from a blog post by Jagbir, where he compares Plan 'A' and Plan 'B' using two biblical passages.

What are the similarities of both quotes? Here are some points that I noticed:

- Both quotes use the names of four people who have experienced Shri Mataji's message in different ways. Lalita, Gurpal and Vipin are three Indian disciples of Shri Mataji who felt a cool breeze on their hands and head when they meditated with her. Sunshine is a Canadian woman who felt a warm sensation in her heart and throat when she listened to Shri Mataji's lectures. These names are used by Jagbir and Pariah Kutta to represent the diversity and universality of Shri Mataji's message.
- Both quotes use the terms "Cool Breeze" and "Living Waters" to describe the effects of Shri Mataji's message. These terms are derived from Shri Mataji's own words, where she said that she could give people a cool breeze of the Holy Spirit on their hands and head, and that she could quench their thirst with living water from her heart. These terms are also related to the biblical metaphors of wind and water that symbolize the Holy Spirit.
- Both quotes use the letters "A" and "B" to distinguish between two different plans or approaches to Shri Mataji's message. Plan 'A' is based on connecting Shri Mataji's message to the message of Jesus, and emphasizing her role as the Paraklētós, the Counselor who teaches, reminds, testifies, proves wrong, guides into truth, speaks and declares the blessings of eschaton. Plan 'B' is based on acknowledging Shri Mataji's message as the divine intervention of the Holy Spirit, but also recognizing her as the Mother of all creation, who is aware of her own substrate and who creates the manifold world anew with her power.
- Both quotes use biblical references to support their plans. Plan 'A' uses John 3:4-5, where Jesus tells Nicodemus that he must be born again of water and spirit to enter the kingdom of God. Plan 'B' uses John 4:1-26, where Jesus tells the Samaritan woman that he can give her living water that will become a spring of water welling up to eternal life.

These are some of the similarities that I found between both quotes. I hope you found them interesting and informative. If you want to learn more about Shri Mataji's message and the debate between Jagbir and Pariah Kutta, you can visit their website at <https://www.adishakti.org/>.

Thank you for reading this email.
