“To the Day of Resurrection, I will make those who follow you superior to those who disbelieved.” The Muhammad molehill defied Allah’s (SWT) Mountain of Issa for 1400 years. Today Jesus has again become Allah’s (SWT) Sign of that Hour. Will the Ummah have ears that hear, Hasan and Shahwinder? (March 28, 2021)

“Mohammed Saab has said clearly: "At the time of Resurrection your hands will speak."” Are the hands of the Ummah ‘speaking’, Hasan and Shahwinder? (March 28, 2021)

I have learned some startling facts about Islam since my son Shahwinder married a tall and beautiful Djiboutian lass a few years ago and blessed us with three grandchildren whom we all adore. Yes, Sunshine and I absolutely love them with all our hearts.

But moderate as my daughter-in-law is, the Sunni Islam of her roots is disturbingly shallow and at times, outrageous. For the sake of cordial relations and the absence of rebutting parties, I will not go into a religious brawl. Instead, I will let the twin titles of today’s topic speak for all.

I wanted to discuss in detail Hasan’s claim that Jesus was ‘resuscitated’ after the Resurrection. Resuscitation is an insult to intelligence, logic, and history.

But after second thoughts, I have decided not to and for good reason. (I will however discuss it another day since it is so outrageously false.)

From both experience and research, I have realized without a shadow of a doubt that Muslims are the most adamant that the Quran is the literal word of God, enslavement and the subjugation of women and extermination of kaffirs, especially Jews, included.

The same goes for the denial of the crucifixion by Muslims but firm belief that the moon split into two during the time of Muhammad (that no one actually witnessed, let alone the rest of the world):

“Of the major theological divides that separate Islam and Christianity, one of the most difficult to pin down is the denial of the crucifixion of Jesus in Muslim tradition. Though the assertion that Jesus did not die on the cross appears in only part of one difficult verse in the Qur’an (Q4:157, see below), scholars agree that the majority view within Islam is that this verse “affirms categorically that Christ did not die on the cross and that God raised him to Godself.”^[3] In fact, the rejection of the crucifixion has “become a sort of shibboleth of orthodoxy,”^[4] thus presenting a significant challenge for Muslim-Christian engagement.

This dogma is not, however, without its difficulties: it requires rejection of the broad scholarly consensus that the crucifixion of Jesus of Nazareth outside Jerusalem under the oversight of Pontius Pilate is an indisputable historical fact; it strains exegesis of other parts of the Qur’an and appears to rely on strained exegesis of one verse; and it has spawned a wide range of often speculative and contradictory explanations.^[5] But does the Qur’an itself actually deny the resurrection? Such is the question this article attempts to answer. By analyzing the textual data and interpretive history, it will be argued that the belief that Jesus was not crucified actually stems from an anti-Jewish polemical passage that was misinterpreted along both Shi'a and Sunni lines and cemented by medieval orthodoxy. In other words, it is not the Qur'an itself that indisputably denies the crucifixion, but the scholars defending Islamic orthodoxy."

Does that mean the Quran is a fabrication? No, it is not as I am bound by the Paraclete Shri Mataji declaring the Al Naba (The Great News) of Al-Qiyamah that I have surrendered to. I am also feeling the Cool Breeze, a 24/7 verifiable experience that also guides me as to my own problems. It is the internal subtle system that SYs try to cleanse day and night with 1001 rituals that I detest (because they insult the Mother Kundalini.)

In short, I have experienced my hands are 'talking' and admonishing me of any wrongdoings (chakra catch) just as the Quran promised to all who take part in the Resurrection. Thousands of SYs can testify to this as it is rooted in the subtle system:

That Day shall We set a seal on their mouths, but their hands will speak to Us, And their feet bear witness to all that they did. Surah 36:65 (Ya Sin)

The Paraclete or Ruh al-Quds (Arabic for Holy Spirit) has even asked the Ummah concerning this surah 36:65 Ya Sin:

"Every religion has said "You know thy Self." Mohammed Sahib has said very clearly, "At the time of Resurrection your hands will speak." Are they speaking?"

Hindus know about it, that we have to get our Self-realization. No use just listening to these Babajis and giving them money. All this kind of rituals that we have been doing, our forefathers have been doing: what have we achieved? Nothing."

But let us leave all this pettiness and entrenched ignorance of the Ummah concerning the heart and soul of Islam: The Resurrection. Muslims are very stubborn, brainwashed, and made to fear that the Devil is misleading them.

So, it will be pointless for a pariah dog like me educating camels and donkeys about Islam. Just like Shri Mataji, I have been breaking my head for the last 25 years without success.

So, let's see if this surah makes sense to them, Hasan and Shahwinder:

Behold! Allah said: "O Jesus! I will take thee and raise thee to Myself and clear thee (of the falsehoods) of those who blaspheme; I will make those who follow thee superior to those who reject Faith to the Day of Resurrection; then shall ye all return unto Me and I will judge between you of the matters wherein ye dispute. Surah 3:55 Al-Imran (The Family of Imran)

I know the ulama have for centuries examined this surah and thousands of Muslim scholars interpreted and translated the Quran in every language conceivable. Yes, they all have treated the sacred texts with utmost reverence and understood it to the minutest of details. So, what is this pariah dog going to add so late in 2021?

All who followed Jesus 14 centuries ago were made superior to those Muslims who followed Muhammad. There is no other way for the Ummah to twist and turn to slither out of this, Hasan and Shahwinder.

And today, 14 centuries later, Jesus is the Sign of the Hour of the Resurrection! He is the difference between Jannah and Jahannam, literally. So, arise and deliver Al Naba and the Warning of Jahannam to all Kaffirs of the Kaaba!
