TODAY IN A MINUTE

Witness: "I am 80 years old, and I still cry." That's what one of America's youngest Holocaust survivors told us earlier this year. Photographer Robert Clark lovingly captured Jennine Burk's image as we sought words of wisdom from those who participated in World War II and suffered its horrors. Burk, who hid from the Nazis in Brussels during the war, was orphaned and later adopted by a U.S. family. She lived the rest of her life in New Orleans, the Crescent City Jewish News reported.

"But HALF THE SKY has always been divine since time immemorial. For me, this forum and future websites are the first few steps* of a ten-thousand-mile journey to make Lalita, Malika and all daughters worldwide divine. For that, they need an excellent education and a life free of drugs, alcohol, race, and religion.

They will need fathers willing to invest their lives in making Nature the Mother that gives birth to all. And grandparents seeking to usher that future of the Aykaa Mayee (One Mother) of all humanity! It is such a beautiful journey of hope, joy, love, peace, purpose. My grandkids must know we humans are immortal souls on a journey back Home, and that there is no death. They must know that Earth is not a one-night-stand that destroys so much today." July 12, 2020

IN A FEW WORDS

If you are journeying up the path toward liberation, at the top of the mountain are words like truth and beauty and wisdom and love. ... Everything below the top is relative truth.

"Hello everyone, I left the group because I find it difficult to understand the spiritual teachings that my dad is sharing with us. Probably mainly because I have limited knowledge on these topics. That being said, I encourage everyone to partake in and to engage with the content being shared. I will remain in this group as a sign of support to what is being shared." Lalita
