

Dear, most loved and respected Sir CP

It was with some trepidation that I realised who was on the phone when you recently called to convey your good wishes for the New Year. On the one hand I was genuinely pleased, even thrilled to hear your voice, to hear that you are well and that despite the snow and cold weather in Genova, you and our Holy Mother Shri Mataji are warm, comfortable, in good spirits and being well looked after.

On the other hand I was somewhat fearful that I may have to listen, once again, to a story that I have now heard in full, from you, on at least five occasions, about the 'conspiracy' against you that took place in America, about individual members of the former World Council who are 'only interested in power' and who have deceived you in order to retain control of intellectual and other properties that 'should really belong to you and your family'. I was fearful that, once again, I would have to be polite in a conversation that would lead to a connivance, and endearing promises of support in matters of a 'political' nature. Previously I have responded by stating that I, or 'we' will do whatever it takes to uphold and support the will and desires of Her Holiness Shri Mataji.

We both knew that we were playing a game on those occasions.

I have loved you and admired you for almost 30 years. I have held you as the greatest example I have ever seen, of dignity, charm, eloquence and rhetoric. You absolutely deserve the honours you have received and I am so proud to have come to know you and your family. It has been a tremendous privilege and I write this with total sincerity.

As a member of the Medical team I have asked you in all seriousness to please stop worrying yourself about matters that cause distress or anxiety or disturbance of sleep. I think that you thought I was simply being polite.....or foolish. Details of any medical issues will of course remain in strictest confidence....for ever....but it is obvious that none of us are getting younger. You Sir, deserve better than the relentlessly painful journey of recent years.

Please be assured that you and your family are genuinely loved and respected by the Sahaja Yoga community. There is simply no way that any of us are prepared to see any of you suffer, in any way, be it physical, emotional or socio-economic. We know that Sahaja Yogis will always be there for you, for your family and for future generations. As well as holding you in the highest regard, it is what Shri Mataji would wish for. We know this without question.

Bearing all this in mind it is important that we share concerns about any response that you may have regarding emails sent to you in the last 24 hours, and indeed others that may come. There is no conspiracy going on here. This is not some carefully planned strategy. We are all responding, triggered by the email from Rajesh, in our own way, to events that have occurred since Her Holiness Shri Mataji has become increasingly silent.

I sincerely hope that you will be able to absorb the contents of these emails in the manner and spirit with which they were/are being written. There is no 'revolution' going on. No treachery. No hostility. Just honesty, integrity and what may feel like 'tough' love.

Your response (emotional and practical) will determine the future of your own health, as well as the future reputation and legacy of you and your family. I pray that you will find the strength and humility to restore the unity and integrity of Sahaja Yoga for us all, and for future generations.

With love, respect and concern

Brian
