The Temple of God, St. Peter's Basilica

The Antichrist displays his utter hatred of the Lord before the eyes of a blind world.

The Man of Sin prays the Lord for forgiveness while in the very act of fornication with abominable idols. It was the rebuke by the true Christians against the blasphemy of idolatry committed by the Roman Catholic Church which resulted in their imprisonment, tortures and murders through the centuries. The Word of God clearly states that she will never change, nor truly repent (see Rev. 17-18). Instead, judgment is promised to come in one hour.
